cases awaiting an initial decision and subsequently an increased volume of appeals The Immigration and Nationality Directorate spent 1.86 billion on its operations in 2002-03 including 1.07 billion in supporting asylum applicants In the same year the Immigration Appellate Authority spent 101 million on dealing with appeals from immigration and asylum cases Following on from a NAO report on this topic HCP 535 session 2003-04 ISBN 0102928495 published in June 2004 the Committees report examines the progress made in tackling the influx of asylum applications and in improving the timeliness and quality of decision making Findings include that the Home Office should balance additional administrative costs involved in increasing staff and infrastructure resourcing to meet surges in demand against the extra costs arising if backlogs are allowed to accumulate and fast tracking procedures should be expanded with a more demanding joint target set for the Directorate and Appellate Authority for time taken to process cases and reach a decision at appeal stage
