statues organized by type trade figures and Indians gods and goddesses fountain figures animals famous men military figures firemen cemetery memorials and religious subjects The compilation of data on these statues will be valuable to scholars filling the current void in research libraries The author s experience as a conservator will also make the an essential resource for historic preservationists seeking to repair statues now damaged by years of outdoor exposure This book has 555 illustrations 354 of which are in color Carol Grissom is Senior Objects Conservator at the Smithsonian s Museum Conservation Institute

Citizen Spectator Wendy Bellion,2012-12-01 In this richly illustrated study the first book length exploration of illusionistic art in the early United States Wendy Bellion investigates Americans experiences with material forms of visual deception and argues that encounters with illusory art shaped their understanding of knowledge representation and subjectivity between 1790 and 1825 Focusing on the work of the well known Peale family and their Philadelphia Museum as well as other Philadelphians Bellion explores the range of illusions encountered in public spaces from trompe l oeil paintings and drawings at art exhibitions to ephemeral displays of phantasmagoria Invisible Ladies and other spectacles of deception Bellion reconstructs the elite and vernacular sites where such art and objects appeared and argues that early national exhibitions doubled as spaces of citizen formation Within a post Revolutionary culture troubled by the social and political consequences of deception keen perception signified able citizenship Setting illusions into dialogue with Enlightenment cultures of science print politics and the senses Citizen Spectator demonstrates that pictorial and optical illusions functioned to cultivate but also to confound discernment Bellion reveals the equivocal nature of illusion during the early republic mapping its changing forms and functions and uncovers surprising links between early American art culture and citizenship The horoscope and
