When The Moon Rises:

Moon Rising Wesley L. Crane,2010-07 A book an easy chair and I can sail vast seas The above line of poetry indicates the breadth of vision in this book of poems written by Beulah Windle Scallin and published after her death in 1938 In this book appears most of the poems she wrote throughout her life The beauty of many of her poems is that there are lines that linger in memory Among them is Remembrance whose first and last lines are I keep no days for fast and mourning lay Memorial Day for me is every day In nearly all her poems there is a line to remember In Struggle the last line stands out Who would know life attends a rugged school Mrs Scallin s poems will live in South Dakota literature for their depth of sympathy and their keen understanding of humanity From A Tribute we read in the last line To study glories of the past and still not scorn the present Progress and forward gaze
