Words Of The World The Global Language System:

Words of the World Abram De Swaan,2002-01-21 This bold and accessible study of human languages and communication explores issues which are at the forefront of today s globalized society The human species is divided into more than five thousand language groups that do not understand each other And yet these groups constitute one coherent world language system connected by multilingual speakers in a surprisingly powerful way The chances of a language thriving depend on its position in the system There are thousands of small peripheral languages each connected to one of a hundred central languages The entire system is held together by one global language English A language is a hypercollective good the more speakers it has the higher its communication value for each one of them Thus when people think that a language is gaining new speakers that in itself is a reason for them to want to learn it too That is why in an age of globalization only a few languages remain for transnational communication and these often prevail even in national societies This important book discusses a number of specific constellations in detail India Indonesia Sub Saharan Africa South Africa and the European Union De Swaan concludes by providing a sober but illuminating view of language policy in multilingual societies This book will be essential reading for those studying sociology communication studies and linguistics Words of the World Abram

Phillipson,2013-01-11 This volume brings together key writings since the 1992 publication of Linguistic Imperialism Robert Phillipson s controversial benchmark volume which triggered a major re thinking of the English teaching profession by connecting the field to wider political and economic forces Analyzing how the global dominance of English in all domains of power is maintained legitimized and persists in the twenty first century Linguistic Imperialism Continued reflects and contributes in important ways to understanding these developments This book is not for sale in India Pakistan Bangladesh Sri Lanka Nepal and Bhutan Doing Double Dutch Elke Brems, Orsolya Réthelyi, Ton van Kalmthout, 2017-05-22 The importance of a minor language in the field of world literature Dutch literature is increasingly understood as a network of texts and poetics connected to other languages and literatures through translations and adaptations In this book a team of international researchers explores how Dutch literary texts cross linguistic historical geophysical political religious and disciplinary borders and reflects on a wide range of methods for studying these myriad border crossings As a result this volume provides insight into the international dissemination of Dutch literature and the position of a smaller less translated language within the field of world literature The title Doing Double Dutch evokes a popular rope skipping game in which two people turn two long jump ropes in opposite directions while a third person jumps them A fitting metaphor for how literature circulates internationally two dynamic spheres the source culture and the target culture engage one another in a complex pattern of movement resulting in a new literary work translation or adaptation formed somewhere in the middle Contributors Chiara Beltrami Gottmer American International School of Rotterdam Peter Boot Huygens ING Pieter Boulogne KU Leuven Elke Brems KU Leuven Michel De Dobbeleer University of Ghent Caroline de Westenholz Louis Couperus Museum Gillis Dorleijn University of Groningen Wilken Engelbrecht Palack University Olomouc Veerle Fraeters University of Antwerp Maud Gonne KU Leuven Christine Hermann University of Vienna Peter Kegel Huygens ING Tessa Lobbes Utrecht University Marijke Meijer Drees University of Groningen Reine Meylaerts KU Leuven Marco Prandoni University of Bologna Marion Prinse Utrecht University Orsolya R thelyi E tv s Lor nd University Budapest Huygens ING Diana Sanz Roig Universitat Pompeu Fabra Rita Schlusemann Utrecht University Matthieu Sergier Universit Saint Louis Brussels Natalia Stachura Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan Janek Urbaniak University of Wroc aw St phanie Vanasten UCL Louvain la Neuve Ton van Kalmthout Huygens ING Suzanne van Putten Brons Herbert Van Uffelen University of Vienna Marc van Zoggel Huygens ING Nico Wilterdink University of Amsterdam The Routledge History of Genocide Cathie Carmichael, Richard C. Maguire, 2015-05-01 The Routledge History of Genocide takes an interdisciplinary yet historically focused look at history from the Iron Age to the recent past to examine episodes of extreme violence that could be interpreted as genocidal Approaching the subject in a sensitive inclusive and respectful way each chapter is a newly commissioned piece covering a range of opinions and perspectives The topics discussed are broad in variety and include genocide and the end of the Ottoman Empire Stalin and the Soviet Union Iron Age warfare genocide and religion Japanese military brutality during the Second World War heritage and how we remember the past The volume is global in scope something of increasing importance in the study of genocide Presenting genocide as an extremely diverse phenomenon this book is a wide ranging and in depth view of the field that will be valuable for all those interested in the historical context of genocide Dialect Death in Europe? David Britain, Reinhild Vandekerckhove, 2009 The Local Construction of a Global Language Joseph Sung-Yul Park, 2009 The book investigates how the hegemony of English in South Korea is constructed through the mediation of language ideologies Based on an innovative analysis of metalinguistic discourse in language policy debates cross linguistic humor television Book Review Index, 2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Language Problems & Language Planning, 2006 International Social Science Journal, 2009 English as a Global Language in China Lin Pan, 2014-10-28 This book offers insight into the spread and impact of English language education in China within China s broader educational social economic and political changes The author s critical perspective informs readers on the connections between language education and political ideologies in the context of globalizing China The discussion of the implications concerning language education is of interest for current and future language policy makers language educators and learners Including both diachronic and synchronic accounts of China s language education policy this volume highlights how China as a modern nation state has been seeking a more central position globally and the role that English education and the promotion of such education played in that effort in recent decades Europolis Patrizia Nanz, 2006 In the growing literature on European integration there is still a lack of understanding of the key political elements of this integration In this study the author takes what is one of the most obvious assumptions about European integration namely that it involves convergence toward a common political identity along with a common market and argues that a continuously translated and negotiated divergence in identities is not only a more likely outcome but could also be more beneficial for the eventual formation of a European public sphere and hence a viable and legitimate democracy on a continental scale Law, Politics, and Morality Jordi Ferrer Beltrán, Marisa Iglesias Vila, 2003 How different cultural groups can be made to live together in justice and fairness in one common political entity has in the past been discussed almost exclusively from the perspective of nation states In an increasingly globalising or de nationalising world this no longer seems adequate The European Union as a union of states and with an built expansive tendency is a very different unique kind of organization offering a challenging new context for the discussion of how social justice can be ensured in multicultural societies As debates in the post Maastricht era show the European process of regional integration needs to be accompanied by profound reflexions on issues such as multiculturalism democratic legitimacy and the idea of citizenship In three sections on Globalisation and Multiculturalism Deliberation and Democracy and Citizenship and the European Union this book offers such reflexions formulated by young European legal and political philosophers from England Estonia France Italy Spain and Switzerland The papers were discussed at a conference held in November 2001 in Tossa de Mar Spain This was the first of three PhD EuroConferences in Legal Philosophy sponsored by the Commission of the European Union The papers of the other two conferences Nov 2002 Gerona Spain Nov 2003 Genoa Italy are forthcoming in this collection Language George Melville Bolling, Bernard Bloch, 2010 Proceedings of the annual meeting of the Society in v 1 11 1925 34 After 1934 they appear in Its Bulletin Global Television Barbara Selznick, 2008-06-13 Explores the ways international co productions such as Highlander The Series and The Odyssey are changing television into a transnational commodity Barbara Selznick examines the particular processes by which the international circulation of culture takes place while addressing larger cultural issues such as identity formation FoL, 2006 Perspektiven der Soziolinguistik Ulrich Ammon, 2006 Estudios de sociolingüística, 2004 The Cambridge Handbook of Language Policy Bernard Spolsky, 2012-03 This is the first Handbook to deal with language policy as a whole and is a complete state of the field survey covering language practices beliefs about language varieties and methods and agencies for language management It will be welcomed by students researchers and language professionals in linguistics education and politics Specialized Communication Thorsten Roelcke, Ruth Breeze, Jan Engberg, 2025-06-02 Specialized communication in science technology or institutions is one of the most important and exciting fields of applied linguistics The handbook captures the current and relevant knowledge of specialized languages and professional communication It promotes international communication on central issues where dialogue is urgently needed concerning both their intellectual underpinning and the day to day practices associated with them
