Vision for a Christian College Gordon John Van Wylen, 1988 Collection of essays constitutes a mini history of 15 years in the life of Hope College No bibliography or index Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or The Idea of a Christian College Todd C. Ream, Perry L. Glanzer, 2013-10-28 In 1975 Arthur F Holmes published The Idea of a Christian College At the time he could not have imagined his book would gather such a large following This work s thoughtful yet accessible style made it a long standing choice for reading lists on Christian college and university campuses across the country and around the world Countless numbers of first year students have read and discussed his book as part of their introduction to the Christian college experience However enough has changed since 1975 in both the Church and Academy to now merit a full scale reexamination In this book Todd C Ream and Perry L Glanzer account for changes in how people view the Church and themselves as human agents and propose a vision for the Christian college in light of the fact that so many Christian colleges now look and act more like research universities Including topics such as the co curricular common worship and diversity Ream and Glanzer craft a vision that strives to see into the future by drawing on the riches of the past First year students as well as new faculty members and administrators will benefit from the insights in this book in ways previous generations benefitted from Arthur Holmes s efforts The Vision of Christian College Presidents David Pierce Lawton, 2004 Quality with Soul Robert Benne, 2001 This book demonstrates that despite much evidence to the contrary there are still Christian colleges and universities of high academic quality that have also kept their religious heritages publicly relevant Respected scholar Robert Benne explores how six schools from six different religious traditions Calvin College Wheaton College St Olaf College Valparaiso University Baylor University and the University of Notre Dame have maintained quality with soul These constructive case studies examine the vision ethos and personnel policies of each school showing how and why its religious foundation remains strong The Idea of a Christian College Arthur Frank Holmes, 1975 This revised edition of a classic text provides a concise case for the role of the Christian college and its distinctive mission and contribution Holmes has extensively revised several chapters and included two new chapters Liberal Arts as Career Preparation and The Marks of an Educated Person Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Minutes of the Meeting of Missionaries of the Korea Mission Methodist Episcopal Church, South Thirty Second Session Methodist Episcopal Church.
