Reeducating the Human Vision Jeffrey M. Goldman, 1996 Visions of Ryukyu Gregory Smits, 1999-01-01 Between 1609 and 1879 the geographical political and ideological status of the Kingdom of Ryukyu modern Okinawa was characterized by its ambiguity It was subordinate to its larger neighbors China and Japan yet an integral part of neither A Japanese invasion force from Satsuma had conquered the kingdom in 1609 resulting in its partial incorporation into Tokugawa Japan's bakufu state Given Ryukyu's long standing ties with China and East Asian foreign relations following the rise of the Qing dynasty however the bakufu maintained only an indirect link with Ryukyu from the mid seventeenth century onward Thus Ryukyu was able to exist as a quasi independent kingdom for more than two centuries albeit amidst a complex web of trade and diplomatic agreements involving the bakufu Satsuma Fujian and Beijing During this time Ryukyu's ambiguous position relative to China and Japan prompted its elites to fashion their own visions of Ryukyuan identity Created in a dialogic relationship to both a Chinese and Japanese Other these visions informed political programs intended to remake Ryukyu In this innovative and provocative study Gregory Smits explores early modern perceptions of Ryukyu and their effect on its political culture and institutions He describes the major historical circumstances that informed early modern discourses of Ryukyuan identity and examines the strategies used by leading intellectual and political figures to fashion promote and implement their visions of Ryukyu Early modern visions of Ryukyu were based on Confucianism Buddhism and other ideologies of the time Eventually one vision prevailed becoming the theoretical basis of the early modern state by the middle of the eighteenth century Employing elements of Confucianism the scholar and government official Sai On 1682-1761 argued that the kingdom's destiny lay primarily with Ryukyuan themselves and that moral parity with Japan and China was within its grasp Despite Satsuma's control over its diplomatic and economic affairs Sai envisioned Ryukyu as an ideal

Sai Ideal and the Sai World ,1999 SAI Mission with SAI Vision NEELU. JAGGI,2024-01-06 I bow to my Guru Sainath as I offer my expression of Shraddha that I have compiled in this book Totally inspired by my Deva while sitting infront of Him in the Melbourne Temple Dwarkamai I vividly remember Baba communicating with me with His gaze fixed upon me asking me to write about how He came along with me to Melbourne from Delhi my home town and the various incidents and experiences that followed All guided by Baba even to the point of Him showing me His own form under a tree in the premises of the current temple and Himself appearing inside the temple to do the sthapna of His Padukas The visions mentioned in the book have been the driving force behind my endeavour I just had to follow my Guru s instructions as He held my hand and led me on The connectivity between me and my Guru is purely spiritual a spiritual umbilical cord between my physical bodily existence and His magnetic presence Baba existed in a human form more than a hundred years ago He still exists and manifests Himself in different forms to reveal His presence in each and every molecule of the cosmos
