War In The Desert:

Desert War in North Africa Stephen W. Sears, 2006 A compelling study of the fierce Second World War campaign illustrates why the strategy of the Axis powers failed in the struggle for the North African coast during World War II and profiles the important roles of such military leaders as Rommel and Montgomery Reprint The Desert War Alan Moorehead, 2013-04-01 The seminal account of the battle between Montgomery's Eighth Army and Rommel's Afrika Corps amidst the endless harsh wastes of the Western Desert In 1940 Alan Moorehead was sent to cover the North Africa campaign by the Daily Express and he followed its dramatic course all the way to 1943 The three books he subsequently wrote about the Desert War later collected as his African Trilogy were swiftly acclaimed as a classic account of the tussle between Montgomery's Eighth Army and Rommel's Afrika Corps under the beating sun of the Egyptian Sahara's Western Desert Moorehead was responsible for the celebrated insight that tank battles in the desert are like battles at sea the lumbering tanks like ships lost in a vast ocean of sand The New Statesman could not have put it better when it described his achievement with this riveting book There is something of genius in the breadth and penetration of his vision which encompasses the whole panorama of war and then narrows it down to the particular the soldier stubbing out his cigarette before going into action the expression on a tank commander's face as he is hit The story of the African campaigns will go down in history as one of the great epics of mankind largely thanks to Mr Moorehead's account War in the Desert Sir John Bagot Glubb, 1961 Tells of the British intervention in the strife between Nefed and Iraq and the resulting peace The War in the Desert Richard Collier, 1977-10 The hard fought campaigns in the North African desert waged by Axis and Allied forces are documented by means of text picture essays and profiles of Rommel and Montgomery The Desert War Jean Paul Pallud, 2022-09-21 Following Mussolini's declaration of war in June 1940 initially Italy faced only those British troops based in the Middle East but as the armed confrontation in the Western Desert of North Africa escalated other nations were drawn in Germany Australia India South Africa New Zealand France and finally the United States to wage the first major tank versus tank battles of the Second World War First tracing the history of the very early beginnings of civilization in North Africa and on through the period of Italian colonization Jean Paul Pallud begins his account when the initial shots were fired at the 11th Hussars as they approached Italian outposts near Sidi Omar in Libya It proved to be the opening move of a campaign which was to last for three years When the Afrikakorps led by Rommel joined the battle in February 1941 the Germans soon gained the upper hand and recovered the whole of Cyrenaica minus Tobruk in the summer The campaign then swung back and forth across the desert for another year until Rommel finally captured Tobruk in June 1942 and then moved eastwards into Egypt With British fortunes at their lowest ebb changes in command led to Montgomery launching his offensive at El Alamein the following November This began the advance of the Eighth Army over a thousand miles to Tunisia resulting in the final round up of the German and Italian forces in May 1943 Jean Paul and his camera retraced the route just prior to the recent civil war in Libya and the uprisings in Tunisia and Egypt in 2011 so he was fortunate to capture the locations before yet another war left its trail of death and destruction Although the campaign in 1940-43 was dominated largely by armor nevertheless the Allies lost over 250 000 men killed wounded missing and captured and the Axis 620 000 Those that never came home lie in cemeteries scattered across the barren landscape of a battlefield that has changed little in over 70 years

Desert War Alan Moorehead, 2001 North Africa was the site of some of the most volatile battles of World War II For journalist Alan Moorehead it was war in its purest form a knight's tournament in empty space In Desert War which includes the complete texts of The Mediterranean Front A Year of Battle and The End of Africa Moorehead writes about what he saw He recounts with dazzling prose and intimate detail the heroes and legends the soldiers and prisoners the military strategies the strengths and weaknesses of those involved and portraits of generals Rommel Montgomery and Patton Woven throughout are observations on the landscape the Mediterranean shores and the vast desert which inevitably played a role in shaping the battles For Moorehead desert warfare resembled war at sea Men moved by compass No position was static Each truck or tank was as individual as a destroyer Written by a man who lived and breathed the conflict in North Africa during World War II Desert War is a eyewitness account and an inspired piece of writing by a master of his craft
