Daisaku Ikeda's Philosophy of Peace
Olivier Urbain, 2010-03-30 Who is Daisaku Ikeda At one level he is the leader of a religious movement Soka Gakkai which began in Japan where it still has its headquarters but which now claims 12 million adherents around the world At another level he is a globetrotting figure whose formal conversations with diverse writers thinkers and diplomats including Arnold Toynbee Joseph Rotblat and Mikhail Gorbachev have garnered him an international profile as well as academic recognition Perhaps above all else Daisaku Ikeda is viewed as a campaigner for peace And it is Ikeda's specific contribution to peacebuilding notably through the central emphasis he has placed on the significance of dialogue that this book explores the first to do so in a concerted way Olivier Urbain shows that while Soka Gakkai the value society may stem from the medieval principles of Nichiren Buddhism under Ikeda's leadership it has taken these classic wisdoms and transformed them Now essentially classless and secularised as well as adaptable and sensitive to modern challenges like resource shortages and climate change this argues the author is a pragmatic approach to peace which has proved both popular and eminently transportable

Transforming conflict through social and economic development Sandra Buchanan,2016-05-16
Transforming conflict through social and economic development examines lessons learned from the Northern Ireland and Border Counties conflict transformation process through social and economic development and their consequent impacts and implications for practice and policymaking with a range of functional recommendations produced for other regions emerging from and seeking to transform violent conflict It provides for the first time a comprehensive assessment of the region's transformation activity largely amongst grassroots actors enabled by a number of specific funding programmes namely the International Fund for Ireland Peace I II and III and INTERREG I II and IIIA These programmes have been responsible for a huge increase in grassroots practice which to date has attracted virtually no academic analysis this book seeks to fill this gap In focusing on the politics of the socioeconomic activities that underpinned the elite negotiations of the peace process key theoretical transformation concepts are firstly explored followed by an examination of the social and economic context of Northern Ireland and the border counties The three programmes and their impacts are then assessed before considering what policy lessons can be learned and what recommendations can be made for practice This is underpinned by a range of semi structured interviews and the author's own experience as a project promoter through these programmes in the border counties for more than a decade The book will be essential reading for students practitioners and policymakers in the fields of peace and conflict studies conflict transformation peacebuilding post agreement reconstruction and the political economy of conflict and those interested in contemporary developments in the Northern Ireland peace process

More Than a Curriculum Johan Galtung,S. P. Udayakumar,2013-02-27 This book critically evaluates contemporary schools and universities proposing peace and development education as a life process It emphasizes being and becoming what we teach offering non conventional tools and approaches It's a valuable resource for education courses peace educators and researchers

From Conflict to Peace. Rehabilitation Process in the Phase of Transforming Conflict - The Case of Northern Ireland Yusuf Cinar,2018-07-09 The problem of Northern Ireland is a struggle for sharing power between the Catholics and the Protestants The structural and basic reasons of the problem have played a very important role in the evolution of it towards civil war The most important basic reason underlying it is mutual distrust between parties in Northern Ireland On this regard some necessary steps are to be taken for the stability of the peaceful environment established after the conflict The normalization of the society and the making of the relations between groups transparent constitute the rehabilitation process itself Rehabilitation process ensures the continuation of confidence building in schools helps with the matter of winning future generations and also plays an important role in ensuring confidence building in institutions In sum the subject of this study is addressing the contributions of the rehabilitation as the protection of peace to the social reconciliation process as formed by the societies living in Northern Ireland and its continuation by discussing the rehabilitation process with reference to the example of Northern Ireland in the phase of transforming conflict One of the main research questions of this study is to present the contribution of the rehabilitation process on peace within the context of conflict administration In the first part of this book the stage of rehabilitation in the development process of conflict administration is discussed In the second part of this book the structural reasons of conflict will be approached and Belfast Agreement which can be described as a reconciliation document of parties will be analysed The third part is focused on how the results of the application of rehabilitation activities that are foreseen in the in the process of transforming the problem of Northern Ireland are obtained

Democratic Representation in Plurinational States Ephraim Nimni, Elçin Aktoprak, 2018-12-28 This book examines modalities for the recognition and political participation of minorities in plurinational states in theory and in practice with a specific reference to the Republic of Turkey and the resolution of the Kurdish question Drawing on the experience of Spain and Eastern Europe and other recent novel models for minority accommodation including the Ottoman experience of minority autonomy the Millet System the volume brings together researchers from Turkey and Europe more broadly to develop an ongoing dialogue that analytically examines various models for national minority accommodation These models promise to protect the state's integrity and provide governmental mechanisms that satisfy demands for collective representation of national communities in the framework of a plurinational state

Peace Magazine, 2005 Journal of Peacebuilding & Development, 2002 Learning to Seek James A. Dator, 2017-07-12 The accelerating technological transformation in learning has necessitated an ability to search and differentiate among the one billion web pages libraries databases books newspapers magazines radio and television stations and opinion columns available online This volume focuses on the normative challenges that the current technological transformation presents to all professionals engaged in higher education Part I concentrates on the current social and technological trends David Snyder presents an outline of technologies that have made open knowledge systems possible Majid Tehranian argues that the new technological environment has made learning to seek out information more possible than ever before Robert Fuller calls for an egalitarian rather than hierarchical approach to communication systems Harlan Cleveland proposes integrative learning broad thinking and globally aware citizenship through education for wisdom Part II focuses on problems of governance and finance in the new technological environment John Hinchcliff takes up the problem of values and argues for the maintenance of traditional altruistic rather than Promethean goals Karou Yamaguchi comes to the problem of the futures with the tools of system dynamics William Bergquist calls for a reorganization of higher education to meet the needs for creation transfer and inculcation of knowledge and skills Hamid Shirvani calls for the core values of transparency integrity open communication and dignitarian approach as the guideposts in educational leadership Walter Truett Anderson concludes by attempting to bring the complex technological social economic and political variables into a holistic approach for the management of higher education In 2005 at the Universities of the Future Conference participants were asked to envision the future of higher education Part III presents their visions Regional Development Dialogue, 2005 An international journal focusing on third world development problems Encyclopedia of Violence, Peace, & Conflict: A-F Lester R. Kurtz, 2008 Provides timely and useful information about antagonism and reconciliation in all contexts of public and personal life An essential reference for students and scholars working in the field of peace and conflict resolution studies and for those seeking to explore alternatives to violence and share visions and strategies for social justice and social change Globalization and Transnational Capitalism Xing Li, Jizhen Li, Gorm Winther, 2009 This volume examines how globalization and transnational capitalism have reshaped the terrain and parameters of social economic and political relations both at the national and the global levels and how the relations of domination and subordination are reproduced in new forms beyond national borders It discusses the essential question on whether the resilient hegemony of transnational capitalism can be possibly reproduced containing alternative systems of organization The book can be heuristically summarized by the Chinese words for crisis which is made up of two syllables Wei and Ji representing danger and opportunity respectively It means that there is a crisis there is an element of danger and that there is opportunity Consequently while it is important to understand the embedded limits of capitalism it is equally important to continue the effort to search for alternative opportunities Development and Humanitarianism Deborah Eade, Tony Vaux, 2007 Humanitarian intervention invariably rubs shoulders with politics albeit awkwardly and sometimes even with tragic results Tensions between them take many forms ranging from different assessments of the extent or even the existence of a crisis to claims that humanitarian assistance is not saving innocent lives but sustaining politico military forces or to the conclusion that the constraints upon them compel aid agencies to withdraw from the area of operation completely whether to ensure the safety of their own staff or because they believe that their integrity is unacceptably compromised by staying Development and Humanitarianism addresses these and other dilemmas that aid agencies face in interpreting the principles of humanitarianism in contexts where they risk being manipulated by political agendas The contributors have extensive experience as frontline aid workers agency policy makers academics and researchers and professional consultants around the world Like every book in the Development in Practice Readers series Development and Humanitarianism draws on the contents of the acclaimed international journal Development in Practice and includes an annotated resource list of recent publications relevant journals organizations and websites presenting a cutting edge guide to thinking and action Other Contributors Gretchen Alther Andrew Bonwick Julia Buckmaster Udan Fernando Dorothea Hilhorst Jonathan Makuwira Vanessa Pupavac Volker Schimmel Astri Suhrke Frank James Tester Martha Thompson and Suzanne Williams Peace Philosophy in Action Candice C. Carter, Ravindra Kumar, 2010-09-15 This book documents recent and historical events in the theoretically based practice of peace development Its diverse collection of essays describes different aspects of applied philosophy in peace action commonly involving the contributors continual engagement in the field while offering support and optimal responses to conflict and violence This study has never been timelier as the omnipresence of conflict and the widespread opportunities to respond to them with nonviolence and peace practices

Israel and Palestine John Ehrenberg, Yoav Peled, 2016-07-29 For decades Israeli Jews Palestinians and Israeli Arabs have been engaged in a debate about past history present options and future possibilities Basic questions of citizenship religion political tactics democracy the rule of law and a host of other matters are abandoned revived and modified in an intellectual exchange between representatives of all three communities that is as old as the political conflicts that have marked the region The high stakes intense emotions and meager results of the peace process lend particular importance and salience to these discussions The sophistication of these debates will come as a surprise to many observers who might have concluded that there is no escape from the present impasse and little possibility for a just settlement of the grievous divisions in the region Given the pivotal role of the United States in the Middle East it would be particularly helpful if Americans understanding of the issues went beyond the superficiality that often passes for political discussion and media coverage Whatever the outcome of the discussions currently under way the central commitment of the Oslo Accords to the two state solution has long been the foundation of American diplomacy and is the starting point of Washington s most recent attempt to revive the moribund peace process Important segments of public opinion in the three communities however have started to question the possibility and more importantly perhaps the desirability of a two state solution Their doubts have set in motion a lively and important debate and this book is designed to introduce American readers to the terms of that discussion It features essays by well known Israeli academics both Jewish and Palestinian as well as contributions from non Israeli citizen Palestinian and American scholars It is the first to bring together a wide range of views and perspectives by influential scholars from various disciplines as well as from activists to bear on a very topical subject with international ramifications

Encyclopedia of Violence, Peace, & Conflict: G-Po Lester R. Kurtz, 2008 Provides timely and useful information about antagonism and reconciliation in all contexts of public and personal life An essential reference for students and scholars working in the field of peace and conflict resolution studies and for those seeking to explore alternatives to violence and share visions and strategies for social justice and social change
