Dynamics of Effective Secondary Teaching, 2004 Dynamics of Effective Secondary Teaching integrates theory and research with current classroom practice to help future and in service secondary teachers make instructional and management decisions for the purpose of improving instruction. Realistic scenarios, numerous examples and illustrations from all subject areas, classroom observation forms and valuable websites are what makes this text so practical, providing preservice teachers a direct link to classroom practice. As with previous editions, the major feature of this book is the authors' emphasis on decision making as the thread that links all the topics together. Decision making is introduced in Chapter 1 as a process fundamental to educators and is revisited to enforce the application in each chapter. The authors' view of decision making considers it from a constructivist view of teaching and learning based on reflection and meaning making. Unique to this book is the inclusion in each chapter of a scenario in which a middle or secondary school teacher representing a wide range of subject areas and grade levels applies key ideas to the classroom. These scenarios, which appear near the beginning of each chapter, are referred to and analyzed throughout the chapter to provide a running commentary on the theoretical content being presented.

Skills for Human Service Practice Agi O'Hara, Zita Weber, 2006. Summary written by two of the authors from University of Sydney NSW. This work covers practice skills used in social work and other human service professions across a variety of contexts.

The Instructional Leadership Toolbox Sandra Lee Gupton, 2003. To repair a plank in your educational leadership platform or to build a new platform. Gupton's The Instructional Leadership Toolbox is indeed a useful tool. Fred Carver, Professor Retired, University of Georgia, Athens, GA. This relevant book is presented as a true balance of theory and practicality. Gupton does an excellent job of giving the concept as theory and then telling us how to apply that concept on a day-to-day basis. Tressie Shaw, Harper, Superintendent, Moss Point School District, Moss Point, MS. She's nailed it. The Instructional Leadership Toolbox is a brilliant blueprint for successful values-based school leadership. Practical, insightful, and accurate, this book is a must-read for every school administrator at any level. Lisa Hall, Assistant Principal, Northside Middle School, Greenwood, SC. Today's schools require leaders who focus school efforts and resources on what is happening in the classroom, teaching and learning. S. Lee Gupton examines the instructional leadership role of the principal, providing school leaders with practical ways to reflect on, determine, and improve their own instructional goals. Using a unique toolbox metaphor, this resource book also offers a variety of helpful tools, skills, strategies, and information drawn from today's best research and theory in school administration.

The 21st Century Principal Jeffrey S. Kaiser, 1995. Theory and Practice of Education Baraang E. M. Dlamini, Roger J. Cazziol, 2002. Restructuring for Student Learning Bruce G. Barnett, Kathryn S. Whitaker, 1996-04-28. The only true measure of a successfully restructured learning environment lies in how student learning has been affected, not simply whether teachers relate well to one another, community involvement has increased, or districts have implemented site-based management. Provides an in-depth review, analysis, and re-evaluation of school restructuring. Included are an examination of restructuring and student learning outcomes, theoretical approaches to restructuring school and community, environmental factors that influence restructuring, and components of a platform for successful restructuring.
