Social Problems Contemporary Readings:

Contemporary Readings in Social Problems Anna Leon-Guerrero, 2008-11-21 Companion reader to Anna Leon Guerrero's Social Problems 2nd Edition

Social Problems Joel M. Charon, 2002 A unique and groundbreaking collection of 58 articles organized in 13 thematic sections that takes a structural conflict approach yet lets the voices of those impacted by social problems be heard. The articles are a mix of classic and contemporary readings that cover a wide range of issues in the United States and the world. The introductory article written by the author focuses on four questions that students are urged to apply throughout the reader: What is the problem? What makes the problem a social problem? What causes the problem? What can be done? This Four Questions approach gives students a consistent sociological framework within which to analyze social problems. The articles have been painstakingly selected to hold student interest, highlight contemporary social problems, and help professors show students how to think sociologically about the social problems around us. Seeing Social Problems Brandon Lang, Molly Monahan Lang, 2019-12-13 Seeing Social Problems Readings on Contemporary Issues in the United States provides students with engaging, thought-provoking articles that examine a wide array of current social issues, the types of behaviors that perpetuate such problems, and how these issues affect the daily lives of Americans. Students are invited to critically consider how key issues have evolved and changed over time and to devise new ways for society to improve both as people and as a nation. The reader is divided into eight sections. Opening sections address socioeconomic inequality and poverty, racial and ethnic inequality, gender inequality, and homophobia and crime. Later sections explore social problems related to medicine and health, families, education, and the environment. The revised first edition features up-to-date information on several important issues, including race, gender, crime, health care, drug abuse, and pollution. Recent developments related to the Black Lives Matter and MeToo movements, Obamacare, and environmental justice are addressed. A new reading concerning the American opioid crisis has also been added. Developed to inspire critical thought and a greater understanding of contemporary issues, Seeing Social Problems is an ideal resource for courses in sociology. Brandon Lang earned his Ph.D. in sociology at North Carolina State University. He is an associate professor in the Department of Sociology, Social Work, and Criminal Justice at Bloomsbury University. Dr. Lang's areas of interest include the sociology of sports and community, public and environmental sociology. His writing has appeared in numerous journals, including Culture and Agriculture, Technology in Society, and Journal of Environmental Education. Dr. Lang is a member of the International Sociology of Sport Association and the Eastern Sociological Society. Molly Monahan Lang earned her Ph.D. in sociology at North Carolina State University. She is an assistant teaching professor of sociology at Penn State Behrend. Dr. Monahan Lang's research interests include the intersections of race, social class, and gender within social institutions, with particular emphasis on marriages and death/dying.

Investigating Social Problems A. Javier Trevino,2014-07-24 Given the complexity of the issues the study of social problems requires indeed demands specialized focus by experts A Javier Trevi o Welcome to a new way of Investigating Social Problems In this groundbreaking new text general editor A Javier Trevi o working with a panel of experts thoroughly examines all aspects of social problems providing a contemporary and authoritative introduction to the field Each chapter is written by a specialist on that particular topic This unique contributed format ensures that the research and examples provided are the most current and relevant in the field The chapters carefully follow a model framework to ensure consistency across the entire text and provide continuity for the reader The text is framed around three major themes intersectionality the interplay of race ethnicity class and gender the global scope of many problems and how researchers take an evidence based approach to studying problems Social Problems Donileen R. Loseke,Joel Best,2017 This collection of focused essays is directed at several levels of students of social problems It is accessible to the uninitiated who are not familiar with the constructionist literature and aimed at those who are not particularly interested in subtle theoretical and empirical issues of concern to academics studying social problems from constructionist perspectives Some readings focus on the construction of problems by scientists and other professionals others examine the work of social activists mass media and social service personnel Among the topics included are studies of social inequalities and individual deviance a comparison of the images of social problems in the United States with those in other countries and an examination of the importance of politics and power in constructing public images of social problems Constructionist perspectives have become the leading theoretical approach for sociology and allied fields in studying social problems Yet constructionists impact on the teaching of social problems has been far less dramatic Undergraduate courses on social problems are often subject to a theoretical barrage of eclectic perspectives Just as the first social problems textbooks did almost a century ago textbooks continue to present a series of unrelated chapters each devoted to a particular social problem Social Problems is an effort at systematic analysis rather than random thought on the subject Social Problems presents detailed case studies demonstrating how constructionist perspectives can actually be applied to understand particular social problems While these articles can be read alone the editors have organized these selections to correspond with the chapter topics in the second edition of Donileen Loseke's Thinking about Social Problems an accessible introduction to constructionist approaches At the same time some instructors who use this edited collection might wish to provide their own mix to the selection process Many of the contributions make multiple points and so reasonably could be used to illustrate other basic texts or classic studies in the field of social problems Donileen R Loseke is professor of sociology at the University of South Florida Joel Best is professor and chair Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice University of Delaware He has also served as an advisory editor for Aldine in the area of social problems
