Social Process:

Negotiation as a Social Process Roderick M. Kramer, David Messick, 1995-04-06 This is a valuable book It is a rare combination of appreciation and criticism it is an eloquent statement of conceptual advocacy Negotiation as a Social Process attempts the difficult task of the needed reform of a successful field and it does so by example as well as precept Kramer and Messick have done their research colleagues a great service let us hope that they make the most of it Robert L Kahn Professor Emeritus The University of Michigan Negotiation as a Social Process puts the social back in negotiation theory and research where it belongs Consisting of contributions by some of today s leading negotiation researchers this volume is a direct response to the undue emphasis placed in recent years on the role of cognition in negotiation Just as one needs two hands to clap unless you are a Zen Buddhist one needs two or more sides to negotiate This excellent collection explicitly addresses the social and relational context in which negotiations invariably occur and in doing so returns the discussion to its proper place Jeff Rubin Program on Negotiation Harvard Law School In the past several years negotiation and conflict management research has emerged as one of the most active and productive areas of research in organizational behavior Although most research has focused on the cognitive aspects of negotiation few address the impact of social processes and contexts on the negotiation process Because negotiations always occur in the context of some preexisting social relationship between the negotiating parties this neglect is unfortunate Editors Rod Kramer and Dave Messick have brought together original theory and research from many of the leading scholars in this important and emerging area of negotiation research Negotiation as a Social Process covers a wide range of topics including the role of group identification and accountability on negotiator judgment and decision making the importance of power dependence relations on negotiation intergroup bargaining coalitional dynamics in bargaining social influence processes in negotiation cross cultural perspectives on negotiation and the impact of social relationships on negotiation Scholars students and professionals in organization management and communication studies will find Negotiation as a Social Process an important and thought provoking volume

European Integration Between Institution Building and Social Process Peter Herrmann, 1999 Examines the role and function of social policy and of civil society here namely NGOs in European integration viewing integration as a social process which takes place even if the social dimension is underexposed by official policy Coverage includes centralization and differentiation versus decentralization EC integration and the paradox of modernity the future of the European model of society an emerging welfare regime the role and function of organizations of the social economy regarding lifelong learning and the role of social NGOs in the process of building a macro identity Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Social Processes of Online Hate Joseph B. Walther, Ronald E. Rice, 2024-07-31 This book explores the social forces among and between online aggressors that affect the expression and perpetration of online hate Its chapters illustrate how patterns of interactive social behavior reinforce magnify or modify this expression It also considers the characteristics of social media that facilitate social interactions that promote hate and facilitate relationships among haters Bringing together a range of international experts and covering an array of themes including woman abuse antisemitism pornography radicalization and extreme political youth movements this book examines the specific social factors and processes that facilitate these forms of hate and proposes new approaches for explaining them Cutting edge interdisciplinary and authoritative this book will be of interest to sociologists criminologists and scholars of media communication and computational social science alike as well as those engaged with hate crime hate speech social media and online social networks
