Linking Sustainable Livelihoods to Natural Resources and Governance Abdul-Mumin Abdulai, Elmira Shamshiry, 2014-06-29 This book investigates the current level and trend of poverty in the Muslim World including selected countries in Africa the Middle East and Central Asia East Asia the Pacific and South America Authors explore themes of poverty reduction poverty alleviation and the extent of influences on social and economic development particularly natural resource endowments especially mineral resources and their utilization Chapters explore theory and practice including governance and programmes and take a detailed look at Zakat as a faith based policy tool to reduce poverty and improve livelihoods and thus contribute to better environmental stewardship The final chapters look at development questions in the Muslim World and make policy recommendations including a proposed multi dimensional development collaboration model called the Development Collaboration Octagon Model DeCOM Readers will discover theoretical explanations of poverty and how poverty hampers the development of many nations because the poor are unable to partake actively in the development process Poverty indicators and measurement are discussed and trends of economic growth including productivity manufacturing trade patterns investment and saving activity and socio economic developments are all explored supporting data is presented in tables and figures throughout this text Authors explore the potency and success stories of public poverty alleviation strategies and programmes pursued in the Muslim world especially the extent to which the institution of Zakat has been effectively incorporated into public poverty alleviation strategies Policy options required to enhance social and economic development are proposed to help pull the poor out of the poverty trap into the mainstream economy in the Muslim world This work will appeal to anyone wishing to scrutinise poverty its parameters and its relationship with the development of countries in the Muslim world Scholars in the fields of economics sociology geography and Islamic studies will all find something of value here

Statistics for Human Service Evaluation Reginald O. York, 2016-10-28 This practical book shows how both Excel and SPSS can be used for analyzing data for human service evaluation Assuming no prior instruction for statistics the text utilizes a learn by doing approach readers see the use of statistics demonstrated and then are encouraged to apply their own data to statistical analysis with step by step guidance Decision trees practice exercises and quizzes ensure readers will be well prepared to practice data analysis in a wide variety of human services situations Feminism and Men Steven Schacht, Doris Ewing, 1998-10 Too often feminism has been defined as a woman only arena or in competitive terms of male versus female privilege rather than as a cooperative effort to improve the quality of life for everyone Indeed a good deal of feminist scholarship has failed to take into account the relational nature of gender preferring instead to focus on the ways in which men and women are irreconcilably opposed With a view to beginning a more constructive dialogue between women and men the contributors to Feminism and Men argue that the feminist movement can no longer stand to view with suspicion those men who have proved themselves sympathetic to issues of gender equity Bringing together the work of scholars across various disciplines committed to maximizing the inclusion of pro feminist men in the feminist movement the book convincingly demonstrates how and why feminist goals cannot be realized until men and women come together to eliminate the shared harm of patriarchal realities Contributors include R W Connell Riane Eisler Kay Leigh Hagan bell hooks Christine A James Robert Jensen Michael S Kimmel Gary Lemons Michael Messner Matthew Shepherd and John Stoltenberg How to Research Loraine Blaxter, Christina Hughes, Malcolm Tight, 2010-09-16 How to Research is a clear and accessible guide to the business of doing a research project It systematically takes the reader through from the planning to the writing up and finishing off The new edition of this book will include Expanded section on methodology Expanded section on Literature Reviews Inclusion of a glossary
