Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict, revised edition Michael E. Brown,Owen R. Cote, Jr.,Sean M. Lynn-Jones,Steven E. Miller,2001-09-14 Understanding the roots and causes of ethnic animosity analyses of recent events in Bosnia Kosovo Rwanda Somalia and the former Soviet Union Most recent wars have been complex and bloody internal conflicts driven to a significant degree by nationalism and ethnic animosity Since the end of the Cold War dozens of wars in Bosnia Kosovo Rwanda Somalia the former Soviet Union and elsewhere have killed or displaced millions of people Understanding and controlling these wars has become one of the most important and frustrating tasks for scholars and political leaders This revised and expanded edition of Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict contains essays from some of the world s leading analysts of nationalism ethnic conflict and internal war The essays from the first edition have been updated and supplemented by analyses of recent conflicts and new research on the resolution of ethnic and civil wars The first part of the book addresses the roots of nationalistic and ethnic wars focusing in particular on the former Yugoslavia The second part assesses options for international action including the use of force and the deployment of peacekeeping troops The third part examines political challenges that often complicate attempts to prevent or end internal conflicts including refugee flows and the special difficulties of resolving civil wars

Global Political Economy Theodore H. Cohn,2015-08-07 Praised for its authoritative coverage Global Political Economy places the study of IPE in its broadest theoretical context This text not only helps students understand the fundamentals of how the global economy works but also encourages them to use theory to more fully grasp the connections between key issue areas like trade and development Written by a leading IPE scholar Global Political Economy equally emphasizes theory and practice to provide a framework for analyzing current events and long term developments in the global economy

The Subject of Care Eva Feder Kittay,Ellen K. Feder,2003-10-01 All people spend a considerable portion of their lives either as dependents or the caretakers of dependents The fact of human dependency a function of youth severe illness disability or frail old age marks our lives not only as those who are cared for but as those who engage in the work of caring In spite of the time energy and resources material and emotional social and individual that dependency care requires these concerns rarely enter into philosophical legal and political discussions In The Subject of Care feminist scholars consider how acknowledgement of the fact of dependency changes our conceptions of law political theory and morality as well as our very conceptions of self Contributors develop feminist understandings of dependency reassessing the place dependency occupies in our lives and in a just social order

Agricultural and Rural Development Policy in Latin America Alain De Janvry,Nigel David Key,Elisabeth Sadoulet,1997-01-01 This study analyzes the significance of new economic context in Latin America and the Caribbean for the design of policies for the agricultural sector In addition it analyzes and assesses recent trends in agricultural development policy in Latin America to identify and synthesize new policy directions and to highlight emerging challenges and avenues for policy innovation The main conclusion of the study is that Latin American agricultural and rural development policy is at a turning point that will require bold new initiatives to improve the production performance of agriculture reduce rural poverty protect the natural resource base of the sector and ensure the political sustainability of economic growth This will require a pro active set of interventions designed at restoring the specificity of sectoral agricultural policy while maintaining consistency with the macro reforms Publisher s description
