Terrifying Transferences:

Terrifying Transferences Lawrence E. Hedges, 2000 How can therapists treat patients primitive anxieties and overwhelming terrors that are not accessible to verbal interpretation or insight In psychotherapy the traumas suffered in infancy are often reawakened and reexperienced in the safety of the therapeutic relationship While they desperately seek attachment their experience of connection is one of violation and humiliation Their ways of attaching are at the center of what terrifies patients with early trauma and in a successful therapy they structure the development of the transference and come also to terrify the analyst The therapist is confronted with humiliation and abuse from patients who find behavioral ways to communicate their histories These patients require a special connection a new relational experience before they can learn new relational paradigms This book shows therapists how to understand the process of trauma re creation and move with the client through the reexperiencing of the early physical pain and psychological terror and the blaming of the therapist

Facing the Challenge of Liability in Psychotherapy Lawrence E. Hedges, 2007 Dr Lawrence E Hedges updates his ground breaking first edition with special articles on the pressing issues of working with minors and child custody evaluations and provides critical information regarding compliance with new HIPPA regulations In this book he urges clinicians to practice defensively and provides a course of action that equips them to do so After working with over a hundred psycho therapists and attorneys who have fought unwarranted legal and ethical complaints from clients he has made the fruits of his work available to all therapists This book is a wake up call a practical clinically sound response to a frightening reality and an absolute necessity for all therapists in practice today

Clinical Supervision of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy Jill Savege Scharff, 2018-03-26 In Clinical Supervision of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy psychotherapy supervisors from the fields of psychology psychiatry social work and dance movement therapy deal with the ambiguity and complexity of the supervisory role They attend to the need to establish open respectful verbal and non verbal communication a trusting relationship a shared language and a commitment to examining unconscious conflict in the supervisory encounter as well as the patient therapist dynamics The contributors show how the supervisor makes room for the supervisee to express her anxieties without becoming her therapist thereby providing a model for empathic listening but within appropriate boundaries They also describe the many ways in which the therapist s issues reflect or are triggered by those of the patient are further reflected in the dynamics of the supervisory pair and in the institution where supervisee and supervisor work
