Total Institutions:

Total Institutions Samuel E. Wallace, 2017-09-08 Total institutions are defined in this reader not as a separate class of social establishments that exercise complete or nearly complete control over their population but rather as specific institutions which exhibit to an intense degree certain characteristics found in all institutions The issue therefore is not which institutions are total and which are not but rather how much totality does each of our institutions display Representing an important new approach to problems of social control this book concentrates on dynamics how institutions change in the extent or nature of their totality over time and how they display totality in different ways rather than the mere enumeration of common traits

Erving Goffman. Concept of total institutions Verena Stockmair, 2022-02-17 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject Sociology Individual Groups Society grade 1 3 University of Regensburg language English abstract In view of the current disclosure of torture in war prisons in Iraq but also through the disclosure of mistreatment in the Brandenburg an der Havel prison it becomes clear how explosive the concept of total institutions still is more than forty years after its publication by Goffman In his work Asyle first published in 1961 Erving Goffman 1922 1982 summarizes in four essays his many years of sociological studies on the inmates of psychiatric clinics From 1954 to 1957 Goffman was a visiting professor at the National Institute of Mental Health in Bethesda Maryland During this time he spent over a year doing field studies at St Elizabeth s Hospital Washington D C which then had about 7 000 inmates Goffman s own experiences in dealing directly with the inmates of St Elizabeth s Hospital are included in the book as well as countless descriptions of other well known and lesser known authors e g George Orwell Herman Melville who spent some years of their lives in prison in the monastery in the boarding school in an orphanage in the military or in similar institutions Goffman first encountered the term total institution in a 1952 graduate seminar on institutions Coined by Everett Hughes the term must have intrigued Goffman from the start Burns writes It is clear from Goffman s course notes he gave me a copy of them that is must have been a remarkable teaching enterprise enlivened with allusions encyclopedic in its coverage and radically critical and innovative in its approach But while Goffman thought of the term social institution in a way that differed from Hughes he adopted the term total institution in Hughes sense For Hughes these were social institutions which were much more shut off from the outside world he cites nunneries as an example Goffman accordingly relates his observations to the situation of those extruded from society In this work the aim is first to present Goffman s concept of total institutions and to go into the points of view of the inmates the staff and the points of contact of both groups Subsequently the concept should be examined and assessed with regard to its possible application and possibilities should be found to further differentiate the concept

Teaching for Commitment Elmer John Thiessen, 1993 Elmer Thiessen provides a comprehensive critical survey of the debate concerning indoctrination especially in the context of confessional religious education His central aim is to establish that indoctrination as a result of religious instruction is neither inevitable nor as probable as is often assumed by advocates of liberal education Thiessen recognizes that indoctrination can occur in Christian homes and schools He believes however that before the charge of indoctrination can be correctly evaluated we need to develop a more coherent concept of the term He provides a critical examination of the four criteria traditionally associated with indoctrination content method intention and consequences and of the institutional context of indoctrination Military Chaplains' Review ,1982 Military Police Journal ,1982
