Beginning Self-Study Research Brandon M. Butler, Kristen H. Gregory, Mark M. Diacopoulos, Angela P. Branyon, 2026-01-07 This book is an essential guide for novice and experienced self study researchers offering practical insight into the lived experience of conducting self study research Unlike abstract methodologies self study is embodied through practice and often learned collaboratively Because it resists traditional instruction newcomers frequently ask S STEP researchers How does one learn self study This recurring question highlights the need for accessible frameworks and processes to support emerging scholars By addressing this gap the book equips readers with foundational tools to navigate the complexities of self study and fosters deeper understanding of how to learn through reflective inquiry and shared exploration Each chapter is supported by existing literature on self study research as well as examples from the authors own experiences and the experiences of others The inclusion of prompts activities and recommended resources in each chapter enhances the learning process With this book as a guide we hope that S STEP researchers will individually and collaboratively learn how to effectively conduct self study research and contribute meaningfully to the scholarly community by making their self study research public
