Writing America Crosscurrents:

Writing and America Gavin Cologne-Brookes, Neil Sammells, David Timms, 1996 Between Generations Victoria Ford Smith, 2017-08-07 Winner of the Children's Literature Association's 2019 Book Award Between Generations is a multidisciplinary volume that reframes children as powerful forces in the production of their own literature and culture by uncovering a tradition of creative collaborative partnerships between adults and children in nineteenth and early twentieth century England. The intergenerational collaborations documented here provide the foundations for some of the most popular Victorian literature for children from Margaret Gatty's Aunt Judy's Tales to Robert Louis Stevenson's Treasure Island. Examining the publication histories of both canonical and lesser known Golden Age texts reveals that children collaborated with adult authors as active listeners, coauthors, critics, illustrators, and even small scale publishers. These literary collaborations were part of a growing interest in child agency evident in cultural, social, and scientific discourses of the time. Between Generations puts these creative partnerships in conversation with collaborations in other fields including child study, educational policy, library history, and toy culture. Taken together, these collaborations illuminate how Victorians used new critical approaches to childhood to theorize young people as viable social actors. Smith's work not only recognizes Victorian children as literary collaborators but also interrogates how those creative partnerships reflect and influence adult-child relationships in the world beyond books. Between Generations breaks the critical impasse that understands children's literature and children themselves as products of adult desire and revises common constructions of childhood that frequently and often errantly resign the young to passivity or powerlessness.

Postmodernity and Cross-culturalism Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2002 Whereas the text of modernity thrived on its rhythms, symbols, and representations of beauty and above all on its impersonality, postmodernity in the late decades of the twentieth century sought relationships outside the text, those between literature and history, philosophy, psychology, society, and culture. The exploration of such relationships is literary to postmodernity as it is ancillary to modernity. BOOK JACKET

Cross Currents, 1997 The Multimedia Works of Contemporary Latin American Women Writers and Artists Jane Elizabeth Lavery, Sarah Bowskill, 2023 In contemporary Latin America, an emerging crosscurrent of pioneering female writers and artists with an interest in transgressing traditional boundaries of genre, media, gender, and nation are using their work to voice dissent against pressing social issues including neo-liberal consumerism, environmental degradation, mass migration, and gender violence. Bringing together analyses by scholars from the US, Europe, and Latin America with reflections by Ana Clavel, Eugenia Prado Bassi, Eli Neira, Regina Jos Galindo, Carla Faesler, Mónica Nepote, Pilar Acevedo, Gabriela Golder, Mariela Yeregui, Jacalyn Lopez Garcia, and Lucia Grossberger Morales on their own practice, this volume proposes new critical approaches to new forms of expression which encapsulate rich transnational cultural flows and grass roots political activism. Via an analysis of multimedia interventions and practice, the volume shows how the work of
