Harrington, 2019-04-09. Calling All You Romance Writers Out There. Does the idea of having to plan your romance novel in advance horrify you, even though you are afraid of getting lost or never finishing a new story? Well, here is the secret. When you are planning to write a new story, all you need to focus on are the characters and how they are going to change during the course of the romance as a result of the relationship. That is what will make your story both unique and compelling. Advanced story craft techniques are very handy at the editing and revision stage when you shape your story for the reader, but not here. Instead, we use the power of character arc and emotional conflict to create a simple but effective emotional story map for your romance novel. As you write your romance, your characters will come to life on the page and reveal their true personalities through what they say and do. But first, you have to get those characters onto the page and interacting with one
