The Working Mind:

Living with Faith and Patience Gautam Sachdeva and Nikhil Kripalani, 2025-08-10 Shirdi Sai Baba's miracles have touched the lives of millions. Widespread adoration for this spiritual giant is evident in the temples and private shrines set up in His honour worldwide. In this book, Gautam Sachdeva and Nikhil Kripalani set out to give the reader an Advaitic understanding of Sai Baba's teachings, emphasising peace of mind in daily living. These pearls of wisdom, concealed in the leelas mentioned in the ever-popular Sai Satcharita, give us an insight into shraddha and saburi, the hallmark of Baba's teachings: surrendering to Baba, spiritual progress, self-knowledge, free will, serving Baba, and rnanubandhan. Those familiar with the literature available on Sai Baba, as well as those who are exploring it for the first time, will find that this treasure trove of talks may give them a fresh perspective on the teachings of one of India's most revered sages.

Why Not Use Some Common Sense? P.V. VAIDYANATHAN, 2014-10-11 Despite being blessed with the power of intelligence, logic, imagination, and analysis, why do we humans struggle to use the gift of common sense in so many areas of our lives? Have you ever found yourself wondering: Why do we get angry or irritated? Why do we feel guilty? Why do we tell lies or get defensive? Why is there so much lack of trust? Why do we struggle to accept ourselves as we are? Why do we often complicate our own lives? Why do we love to criticize or shy away from candid conversation? The simple truth is that we could handle situations better and solve dilemmas just by applying common sense. This book takes a clear-eyed look at day-to-day scenarios we are all familiar with, in which, by simply altering our perspective and using some common sense, we can resolve or reduce our issues. It serves as a down-to-earth guide to letting go of negative emotions such as anger, frustration, guilt, grief, irritation, unhappiness, and joylessness. These pages are dedicated to helping people live their lives with greater ease, freedom, and simplicity by consciously using the most important tool existence has bestowed upon us: common sense.

Mind and Body, 1901 Beyond Words, Things, Thoughts, Feelings Ha Poong Kim, 2011 What is the nature of aesthetic experience? Ha Poong Kim suggests that a genuine aesthetic experience is a perceptual state of consciousness free of thought. He characterises it as subjectless, objectless, timeless, revelatory, and joyous. It is a state of mind, thus markedly different from our everyday experience where thought processes impinge randomly on our consciousness. The seven essays are divided into three parts. Part I tackles the nature of aesthetic experience as opposed to everyday perception and attempts to illuminate the experience of the beautiful by discussing Plato's famous allegory of the charioteer in Phaedrus and an episode in Proust's In the Shadow of Young Girls in Flower the second section of In Search of Lost Time Part II takes a critical look at Kant's treatment of the judgement of taste in his Critique of Judgement and Eduard Hanslick's conception of the imagination Part III details Kim's thoughts on several topics of the current debate in aesthetics among them on the difference between aesthetic and intellectual pleasure and the nature of expressiveness of music In the first of the two essays in Part III the author discusses critically Christopher Butler's interpretation of artworks as narrative and in the second Peter Kivy's theory of expressive properties Two appendices are provided one on the alienation of aesthetic experience in the common love of artworks as values and the other on performance art as an art form especially in view of the recent retrospective of Marina Abramovic MoMA New York In this appendix the author presents a critique of today's prevailing conception of art
