Writing In Context:

Creating Contexts Christine B. Feak, John M. Swales, 2011 Volume 3 of the revised and expanded edition of English in today's research world. Writing in Context Chris M. Anson, 1988-01-01 Written for teachers not yet entirely familiar with the composing process where students are guided in every phase of the development of their writing the theories that undergird the process approach to teaching writing or process based writing instruction are discussed Writing across Contexts Kathleen Blake Yancy, Liane Robertson, Kara Tacsak, 2014-04-15 Addressing how composers transfer both knowledge about and practices of writing Writing across Contexts explores the grounding theory behind a specific composition curriculum called Teaching for Transfer TFT and analyzes the efficacy of the approach Finding that TFT courses aid students in transfer in ways that other kinds of composition courses do not the authors demonstrate that the content of this curriculum including its reflective practice provides a unique set of resources for students to call on and repurpose for new writing tasks The authors provide a brief historical review give attention to current curricular efforts designed to promote such transfer and develop new insights into the role of prior knowledge in students ability to transfer writing knowledge and practice presenting three models of how students respond to and use new knowledge assemblage remix and critical incident A timely and significant contribution to the field Writing across Contexts will be of interest to graduate students composition scholars WAC and writing in the disciplines scholars and writing program administrators Situated Literacies David Barton, Mary Hamilton, Roz Ivanič, 2000 This is a varied collection of key writings from leading international scholars in the field of literacy It makes a timely and important contribution to literary practices essential reading for anyone involved in literary education Writing in Context Clair M. Hinckley, 1992 Writing First with Readings Laurie G. Kirszner, Stephen R. Mandell, 2008-12-15 Writing First Practice in Context helps students master basic writing skills by providing them with clear instruction engaging models interesting and abundant exercises and plenty of guidance for self checking and revising their work In addition the unique practice in context method gets students writing immediately in every chapter and has them consistently applying what they learn to their own writing The fourth edition goes further in helping students make important connections between paragraph and essay writing skills and between following step by step models of writing and composing their own work Revised in consultation with an ESL specialist this edition is a strong choice for classrooms with non native speakers With additional chapters on study skills and research Writing First is an invaluable tool for students learning the essential skills of college reading and writing Writing First Practice in Context and Foundations First Sentences and Paragraphs are part of a two book workbook series from experienced teachers and authors Laurie Kirszner and Stephen Mandell Both books teach students basic writing and grammar skills in the context of their own writing where students learn best Legal Writing in Context Sonya G. Bonneau, Susan A. McMahon, 2024 Readers of this textbook will learn to think deductively and analogically to distill the holdings of multiple cases into a coherent legal rule and to craft a compelling narrative among other skills All the nuts and bolts of effective lawyering are here But this new edition also helps students understand how context historical societal and personal can play a role in legal analysis and gives students tools for how to find and use that context Professors Susan McMahon and Sonya Bonneau have mined the writings of legal academics lawyers judges psychologists and philosophers to produce a text for legal writing courses that teaches students practical writing skills uses theory to explain why those skills are effective and primes students to understand the influence of context on legal thinking

Writing in Context Laurie G. Kirszner, Stephen R. Mandell, 2003 Writing in Context Paragraphs and Essays offers the same thorough treatment of the process of writing effective paragraphs and building them into thoughtful essays as Kirszner and Mandell's widely adopted Writing First but in a smaller convenient worktext format With the support beginning writing students need from strategies for college success to additional grammar help to vocabulary enhancement Writing in Context shows students how to master the writing skills they need to succeed in college and beyond

Professional Writing in Context John Frederick Reynolds, Carolyn B. Matalene, Joyce Neff Magnotto, Donald C. Samson, Jr., Lynn Veach Sadler, 2013-11-05 This volume explores adult work world writing issues from the perspectives of five seasoned professionals who have logged hundreds of hours working with adults on complicated written communication problems It examines the gap between school world instructional practices and real world problems and situations After describing the five major economic sectors which are writing intensive the text suggests curricular reforms which might better prepare college educated writers for these worlds Because the volume is based on the extensive work world experiences of the authors it offers numerous examples of real world writing problems and strategies which illustrate concretely what goes wrong and what needs to be done about it
