R. D. Meek, 1987 Crowdsourcing our Cultural Heritage Mia Ridge, 2016-04-22 Crowdsourcing or asking the general public to help contribute to shared goals is increasingly popular in memory institutions as a tool for digitising or computing vast amounts of data This book brings together for the first time the collected wisdom of international leaders in the theory and practice of crowdsourcing in cultural heritage It features eight accessible case studies of groundbreaking projects from leading cultural heritage and academic institutions and four thought provoking essays that reflect on the wider implications of this engagement for participants and on the institutions themselves Crowdsourcing in cultural heritage is more than a framework for creating content as a form of mutually beneficial engagement with the collections and research of museums libraries archives and academia it benefits both audiences and institutions However successful crowdsourcing projects reflect a commitment to developing effective interface and technical designs This book will help practitioners who wish to create their own crowdsourcing projects understand how other institutions devised the right combination of source material and the tasks for their crowd The authors provide theoretically informed actionable insights on crowdsourcing in cultural heritage outlining the context in which their projects were created the challenges and opportunities that informed decisions during implementation and reflecting on the results This book will be essential reading for information and cultural management professionals students and researchers in universities corporate public or academic libraries museums and archives

Medical Record George Frederick Shrady, Thomas Lathrop Stedman, 1917 Death and the Elephant Raz Shaw, 2018-03-08 My life had been going nowhere Until I was diagnosed with cancer 12 June 1995 On his twenty eighth birthday Raz Shaw was a directionless gambling addict doing a telesales job that was eating up every trace of what soul he had left The next day he would be diagnosed with stage 4 sclerosing mediastinal non Hodgkin s lymphoma of the large cell type As he tells it cancer saved his life He was given the all clear in March 1996 and stopped gambling for good that April After a year away recuperating he turned his back on the highly paid job that had devoured him and re assimilated himself into the world of theatre that had once made him feel so alive It took him a long time to realise quite how much these recoveries were bound up with one another now he is ready to tell his story Death and the Elephant is a memoir of living through and beyond illness and addiction Blessed with the ability to find humour even in life s darkest moments Raz charts his struggles with irreverence and unflinching perspective This is his story but it s also a universal one an honest funny sometimes raw and often inappropriate glimpse into the mind of a young man dealing with a life threatening illness in the only way he knows how by laughing in its face Goodwin's Official Annual Turf Guide for ..., 1894 Split Second
