

STEPHEN SENN

The background of the book cover is a light yellowish-tan color. In the upper right, there are several orange plastic pill bottles, some of which are tipped over, spilling red, oblong capsules. In the center, a white grid is overlaid on the background. On the grid, there are several red capsules scattered around. A graph is drawn on the grid with a solid red line that starts high on the left and curves downwards to the right. A dashed green line starts low on the left and curves upwards to the right. A vertical dashed line and a horizontal dashed line intersect at a point on the graph. The overall theme is the intersection of statistics and drug development.
