Notable Speeches in Contemporary Presidential Campaigns Robert V. Friedenberg, 2002-03-30 Though many studies of contemporary campaigns focus on brief political advertisements and the growing impact of technology on contemporary campaigns the definitive statements of most candidates are still made in public addresses Friedenberg examines the first public address made by an American presidential candidate on his own behalf The circumstances giving rise to William Henry Harrison's 1840 address and the themes that he developed in that address are strikingly contemporary serving as an appropriate prelude to the examinations of contemporary political speaking that follow Those examinations focus on notable campaign speeches by John F Kennedy Barry Goldwater Richard Nixon Ronald Reagan Bill and Hillary Clinton and George W Bush Each study examines a key event that foreshadowed the speech studied Each study presents a rhetorical biography of the speaker including a discussion of the speechwriting team and preparation techniques utilized by the speaker Each study presents a thorough study of the campaign context in which the speeches were presented Each also presents a close reading and rhetorical analysis of the speech itself and observations on the impact of the speech Cumulatively Friedenberg's studies help to illustrate how even in today's high tech political environment of 30 second ads and candidate Web sites public speeches continue to play a crucial role in political campaigning Of particular interest to scholars and students involved with political communication and political American campaigning

Bill and Hillary William H. Chafe, 2012-09-04 In Bill and Hillary The Politics of the Personal the distinguished historian William H Chafe boldly argues that the trajectory of the Clintons political lives can be understood only through the prism of their personal relationship Each experienced a difficult childhood Bill had an abusive stepfather and his mother was in denial about the family's pathology He believed that his success as a public servant would redeem the family Hillary grew up with an autocratic father and a self sacrificing mother whose most important lesson for her daughter was the necessity of family togetherness As an adolescent Hillary's encounter with her youth minister helped set her moral compass on issues of race and social justice From the day they first met at Yale Law School Bill and Hillary were inseparable even though their relationship was inherently volatile The personal dynamic between them would go on to determine their political fates Hillary was instrumental in Bill's triumphs as Arkansas's governor and saved his presidential candidacy in 1992 by standing with him during the Gennifer Flowers sex scandal He responded by delegating to her powers that no other First Lady had ever exercised Always tempestuous their relationship had as many lows as it did highs from near divorce to stunning electoral and political successes Chafe's many insights into subjects such as health care Kenneth Starr welfare reform and the extent to which the Lewinsky scandal finally freed Hillary to become a politician in her own right and return to the consensus reformer she had been in college and law school add texture and depth to our understanding of the Clintons experience together The latest book from one of our
