The Winged Soul:

The Winged Soul John H. Kunkel, 2003-04-01 Greek history during the stormy fourth century B C bears eloquent testimony to human greatness and perversity In this imagined autobiography we follow the philosopher Plato 427 347 B C from the war torn years of his childhood in Athens through the turmoil of his youth to the death of his great teacher Socrates We participate in his middle years and accompany him on travels to Africa Aegean islands Egypt and Italy Back in Athens we enjoy with him the relatively tranquil life of his later years Throughout Plato s eight decades we witness the calamitous events of a turbulent century that shaped his views about human nature and government His experiences in Athens and his attempts to create a better world in Syracuse seem almost unbelievable Winged Soul - Egrets in Flight (Hard Cover)
