Transforming Grace Jerry Bridges,2017-10-03 When we think of grace we almost always think of being saved by grace That is why Ephesians 2 8 9 is so familiar to us Even Christian literature available on the subject of grace seems to deal almost exclusively with salvation But the Bible teaches we are not only saved by grace but we also live by grace every day of our lives It is this important aspect of grace that seems to be so little understood or practiced by Christians Preface

Broken People, Transforming Grace Roy Hession ,2016-02-02 First published as Good News for Bad People this brand new edition Broken People Transforming Grace follows Roy Hession as he seeks to renew the tired Christian s spiritual fervor by magnifying the glorious truths of the gospel He does this through ten detailed word studies where he investigates topics such as reconciliation grace forgiveness cleansing justification repentance and glorification Homo Florens? Nadia Marais,2023-10-09 What does it mean to flourish Human flourishing lies at the heart of the good news of the gospel and yet contemporary theologies know not only one way of speaking about what it means to flourish If we embed our theological grammars of flourishing in the doctrine of salvation as the doctrine in which theological flourishing talk is arguably rooted and from which rich fruit may be borne there is not one but various ways in which to speak about what it means to flourish Yet what governs our speaking Why do we speak of flourishing as we do The various conceptions of human flourishing that are outlined in this book piety joy and comfort being fully alive healing and dignity grace happiness and blessing represent a collection of attempts not only to imagine human flourishing but also to imagine ways of speaking about human flourishing Perhaps what theology could offer to the vibrant and robust conversations on human flourishing lies exactly in the reminder to take care about how we speak about that which is truly and deeply human our longing to flourish The Annihilation of Hell Nicholas Ansell,2014-07-08 This work analyses and evaluates Jurgen Moltmann s model of universal salvation and its relation to his understanding of the redemption or eschatological fulfilment of time For Jurgen Moltmann Hell is the nemesis of Hope The Annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell s annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann s distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ s descent into Godforsakenness The negation of Hell and the fulfilment of history are inseparable Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann s thinking especially his zimzum doctrine of creation his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature grace relationship this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honour human freedom promise vindication for those who suffer and do justice to biblical revelation As well as providing an in depth exposition of Moltmann s ideas The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalise our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorising of Scripture and the spirituality of existence If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes the confrontation between Hell and hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the centre of theology but at the heart of life itself Church Harmonies ,1876
