Spikes Poems:

Spike's Poems Spike (Terence) Milligan, 2002     The poems of Samuel Taylor Coleridge, including poems and versions of Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1927     Concordance to the Works of Alfred Tennyson Poet Laureate Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson, 1870     The Poems of Samuel Taylor Coleridge, Including Poems and Versions of Poems Herein Published for the First Time Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1921     Poems Meleager, 1920     A Concordance to the Works of Alfred Tennyson, 1870     Contemporary Poetry and Postmodernism I. Gregson, 1996-11-01

Contemporary Poetry and Postmodernism explores the fraught relationship between the poetry of the mainstream and kinds of modernist poetry that have had to make their way outside it. Mainstream poets like Paul Muldoon, James Fenton, and Carol Ann Duffy multiply voices and so draw on resources from the novel. Bakhtin's concept of the dialogic is therefore used to explain their techniques. By contrast, Shklovsky's concept of estrangement is shown to be more useful in accounting for the radical experimentation of poets like Edwin Morgan, Christopher Middleton, and Denise Riley. However, the book concludes by suggesting that partly because of the influence of surrealism in women poets like Selima Hill and Jo Shapcott, the mainstream has recently been infiltrated by modernist and postmodernist estrangement effects.

The Poems of Meleager of Gadara Meleager, 1920     The Routledge Introduction to Twentieth- and Twenty-First-Century Canadian Poetry Erin Wunker, 2022-11-21

When asked the question what is the power of poetry, writer Ian Williams said poetry punctures the surface. Williams' statement that poetry matters and that it does something is at the heart of this book. Building from this core idea that poetry perforates the everyday to give greater range to our lives and our thinking, the practical and pedagogical aim of this book is twofold: the first aim is to provide students with an introduction to the key cultural, political, and historical events that inform twentieth and twenty-first century Canadian poetry, and to familiarize those same readers with poetic movements, trends, and forms of the same time period. This book addresses the aesthetic and social contexts of Canadian poetry written in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries; it models for its readers the critical and theoretical discourses needed to understand the contexts of literary production in Canada. Put differently, readers need a sense of the where and how of poetic production to help situate them in the what of poetry itself. In addition to offering a historically contextualized overview of the significant movements, developments, and poets of this time period, this book also familiarizes readers with key moments of reflection and rupture, such as the effects of economic and ecological crisis, global conflicts, and debates around appropriation of culture. This book is built on the premise that poetry in Canada does not happen outside of political, social, and cultural contexts.

Picture Poems Thomas G. Reischel, 2015-02-10

A photograph is worth a thousand words. Poetry paints word pictures using poetic imagery. On their own, they each are exquisite. Combined, they become something else: a powerful composition that blends the best of both. That is what happens in this book. The author is inspired by the image, and from it, poetry flows to dance and enhance the whole upon the page. Images from the eye of a photographer translate to the mind of the poet. The wonder here is that both are the
