Transit, 1890      Doctor Transit Isidor Schneider, 1925 Experimental science fiction novel with transgender themes A young couple John and Mary are dissatisfied with their sex roles each thinking that the other sex has the better of it They hear about the great Doctor Transit and discover that Transit can change sexes      Transit Ben Aaronovitch, 1992      The Transit of Venus Shirley Hazzard, 2021-03-09 The award winning New York Times bestselling literary masterpiece of Shirley Hazzard the story of two beautiful orphan sisters whose fates are as moving and wonderful and yet as predestined as the transits of the planets themselves A Penguin Classic Considered one of the great English language novels of the twentieth century The Paris Review The Transit of Venus follows Caroline and Grace Bell as they leave Australia to begin a new life in post war England From Sydney to London New York and Stockholm and from the 1950s to the 1980s the two sisters experience seduction and abandonment marriage and widowhood love and betrayal With exquisite breathtaking prose Australian novelist Shirley Hazzard tells the story of the displacements and absurdities of modern life The result is at once an intricately plotted Greek tragedy a sweeping family saga and a desperate love story      British Experimental Women's Fiction, 1945–1975 Andrew Radford, Hannah Van Hove, 2021-08-23 This book scrutinizes a range of relatively overlooked post WWII British women writers who sought to demonstrate that narrative prose fiction offered rich possibilities for aesthetic innovation What unites all the primary authors in this volume is a commitment to challenging the tenets of British mimetic realism as a literary and historical phenomenon This collection reassesses how British female novelists operated in relation to transnational vanguard networking clusters debates and tendencies both political and artistic The chapters collected in this volume enquire for example whether there is something fundamentally different or politically dissident about female experimental procedures and perspectives This book also investigates the processes of canon formation asking why in one way or another these authors have been sidelined or misconstrued by recent scholarship Ultimately it seeks to refine a new research archive on mid century British fiction by female novelists at least as diverse as recent and longer established work in the domain of modernist studies      Transit Edmund Cooper, 1980      California. Supreme Court. Records and Briefs California (State)., Court of Appeal Case s A030997_x000D_x000D_ Received document entitled DECLARATION OF SERVICE      Transit Rachel Cusk, 2022      In Transit Brigid Brophy, 1971      Transit Edmund Cooper, 1965      Hollywood Movie Novels, 1922      Post-Monolingual Anglophone Novels Birgit Neumann, 2025-09-19 Engaging with recent research in literary multilingualism studies the global anglophone and comparative studies this book theorizes the so called post monolingual anglophone novels Inspired by Yasemin Yildiz's Beyond the Mother Tongue The Postmonolingual Condition 2012 post monolingual anglophone novels are understood as literary texts that activate multi and translingual strategies to mount a challenge to the monolingual norm and the homogenizing aspirations of English Post monolingual anglophone novels employ literary configurations of multi and translingualism without ignoring the ongoing validity of the monolingual norm in the international book market and the power differentials inherent in English This corpus of texts is therefore highly self-conscious about the use of language As post monolingual novels stage exchange and movement between languages they also model in the realm of fiction new concepts of language In several case studies of contemporary anglophone post monolingual novels from different parts of the world the book demonstrates how the post monolingual in literature operates within different cultural and political contexts The readings of Arundhati Roy's The Ministry of Utmost Happiness Yvonne A Owuor's The Dragonfly Sea Marlon James' A Brief History of Seven Killings J M Coetzee's The Childhood of Jesus and Ocean Vuong's On Earth We're Briefly Gorgeous propose theoretically and methodologically innovative ways of engaging with literary multi and translingualism While the analyses focus on the post monolingual poetics they also direct attention to the novels modes of production and circulation in the anglosphere

The Ethical Component in Experimental British Fiction Since the 1960's Susana Onega Jaén, Jean-Michel Ganteau, 2007 Some humanist critics contend that only realist texts have an ethical function that there is no ethical message behind the parodic and self-conscious games played by experimental fiction and that since emotion neutralises the ethical faculties there is no ethical dimension in such excess peddling postmodernist genres and modes as kitsch melodrama and romance Yet one may argue that the defamiliarisation imposed by parody metafictional overkill and sundry devices symptomatic of emotional paroxysm on the realist text involves some measure of criticism of received truth and makes for the practice of a non-deontic ethics of truths that is also fairly often an ethics of alterity This volume examines analytical evidence for the ethical component in key experimental British novels from the 1960s to the present with special focus on John Fowles Brigid Brophy B S Johnson Angela Carter Peter Ackroyd A S Byatt Martin Amis Zadie Smith Will Self Ian McEwan and Julian Barnes
