

What Can I Do When I'm Feeling Sad?

We all feel sad when something upsets us. There are many reasons why we feel sad. It is a normal feeling, and it can sometimes take a little time to go away.

Do jumping jacks until I am tired and out of breath.

Do something kind for another person.

Find someone I like to cuddle and cuddle them for at least twenty seconds.

Draw a picture of my feelings.

Go outside and get some fresh air.

Find someone comfortable and try to help get my sad feelings out.

Find someone who usually makes me happy and spend time with them.

I Am ME One of Us,One of us,2005 As humans we incarnate and evolve through our experiences We become independent beings capable of willing feeling and thinking We can interact make decisions judge and find our own truth identity and uniqueness But how and why do we do this We can compare our self creation to making a cake The basic ingredients for the making of a cake are the same but they are also always different The flour may be milled from wheat grown in different parts of the world the eggs may be laid by different hens and the butter made from milk taken from different cows These ingredients can be compared to our inheritance our start in life our genetic make up parents culture etc where there is always variation in color type size etc How the ingredients are put together has a profound affect on the final result The cook making a cake can be likened to our experiencing and all the information that we sense and take in to mix together Baking the cake is like our processing when we program our experiences to create our willing feeling and thinking The result is ourselves just like a cake which we can eat throw away or leave to go mouldy We can enjoy or dislike the result This is us our creation to be as we will Our autobiography is about our evolution and how we sense and program ourselves How we develop our willing feeling and thinking to create our soul This process is unique to human life and enables us to become conscious of the most important part of our being It is the reason for our existence to be consciousness of spirit We can only achieve this through creating ourselves
