Siborne,1983 Waterloo Letters H. T. Siborne,2015-07-10 Excerpt from Waterloo Letters A Selection From Original and Hitherto Unpublished Letters Bearing on the Operations of the 16th 17th and 18th June 1815 by Officers Who Served in the Campaign When my father the late Captain William Siborne Unattached was engaged in the construction of his Model of the Battle of Waterloo he was authorised by the General Commanding in Chief Lord Hill to issue a Circular Letter to the several surviving Officers of the Battle who might be in a position to afford him the information necessary for the completion of his undertaking Copies of this letter and of the plan which accompanied it on one half the original scale are annexed A great number of letters were sent to him in reply and subsequently when writing his History of the Campaign he received many additional letters and memoranda relating not only to the precise period of the Battle represented on the Model but also to the operations and incidents of the Campaign generally These letters were written to Captain Siborne with the knowledge that the information contained in them would be conveyed to the public The greater number of the letters amounting to several hundreds are still in my possession and as the 75th anniversary of the Battle occurred last year and general attention has been redirected to that great event I have thought that the publication of a selected portion of them might be of interest not only to the Army particularly to those Regiments or Corps which took part in the Campaign but also to the public generally Many families and individuals will here find recorded the original accounts given by relatives who served in the Waterloo Campaign of what they experienced and of the parts which they played in it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

T. Siborne,1983 Waterloo Letters H. T. Siborne,2015 This collection of letters from survivors of the Waterloo Campaign was gathered in the 1830s and 1840s when Captain William Siborne was trying to verify the chronological events of the day of the battle to ensure the accuracy of his model diorama of Waterloo Hundreds of replies from the people who had fought in the battle were sent to his circular letter requesting information covering all aspects of the campaign A total of 180 letters give firsthand accounts of all of the principal phases of the Battle of Waterloo from the receipt of intelligence from the Allied outposts which sent a hasty concentration of troops towards the line of the French advance through all the stages of this momentous battle up to the final defeat of the French The letters are from every branch of the British Army including the General Staff cavalry artillery and infantry officers This edition also includes numerous maps plans of the battle and sketches of the various troop positions Waterloo Letters H. T. Siborne, 2020-09-19

Gallantry and Discipline Andrew Bamford, 2014-10-20 The 12th Light Dragoons served throughout Wellington's campaigns in the Peninsula most notably at the Battle of Salamanca in 1812 and later at Waterloo where they suffered heavy casualties supporting the Union Brigade's famous charge The principal source for this book are the papers of Sir James Steuart Colonel of the regiment for almost all of the period in question supplemented by other regimental records Horse Guards paperwork and letters and memoirs allowing both an official understanding of events and several threads of human interest which develop through the narrative The book is divided into two halves first providing an overview of the regiment and the role of Steuart as Colonel before moving onto an account of the regiment on home service during the early years of the Napoleonic Wars and then on active service in the Peninsular War and at Waterloo This concludes with a discussion of the lessons learnt during the war as particularly exemplified by the 12th being one of the regiments selected for conversion to lancers in the aftermath of Waterloo Waterloo letters; a selection from original and hitherto unpublished letters bearing on the operations of the 16th, 17th, and 18th June, 1815, by officers who served in the campaign. Two Battle of Waterloo Letters, The Discriminating General in Manotick Ontario Canada presents two letters from the June 18 1815 Battle of Waterloo edited by Keith Raynor One letter contains orders for the Second North British Dragoons and the other is a private letter from a trooper in the First Dragoon Guards The British forces were led by British general statesman and first Duke of Wellington Arthur Wellesley 1769 1852 The battle resulted in the final abdication of the Emperor of the French Napoleon I 1769 1821 The Iron Duke Lawrence James, 2011-04-30 Lord Wellington don't know how to lose a battle The view of an anonymous soldier at Waterloo became the judgement of the world on the man who was hailed as the first general of his age At Waterloo he defeated Napoleon the master of war and finally checked the disruptive forces of the French Revolution that had troubled Europe for over twenty years Wellington taught himself the art of war in India where his hard fought victories helped lay the foundations of the British raj His armies liberated Portugal and Spain shattered the myth of French invincibility and inspired the people of Europe to resist Napoleon Largely drawn from original sources Lawrence James s biography follows the life of Wellington the soldier and explains how he waged war and why he won battles This is also the story of a humane intelligent and acerbic aristocrat who believed that his kind were predestined to lead It shows how he stamped his iron will on the men he commanded and how they responded It reveals Wellington the professional fighting man who created the remarkable intelligence and logistical services that were the keys to his victories But it was as the national hero who beat Napoleon gave Europe peace and adhered resolutely to the path of duty that he was honoured by his countrymen who saw him as the highest incarnation of English character
