Sound Space:

Sound, Space and Society Kimberley Peters, 2017-11-30 In 1964 rebel radio stations took to the seas in converted ships to offer listening choice to a young resistant audience against a backdrop of restrictive broadcasting policies This book draws on this exceptional moment in social history and the decades that followed teasing out the relations between sound society and space that were central to pirate broadcasting activities With a turn towards mediated life in geography studies of radio have been largely absent However radio remains the most pervasive mass communications medium This book breaks new ground discussing in depth the relationship between radio space and society considering how space matters in the production consumption and regulation of audio transmission through the geophysical spaces of sea land and air It is relevant for readers interested in geographies of media sensory spatial experience everyday geopolitics and the turn towards elemental and more than human geographies

Sound, Space and Sociality in Modern Japan Joseph D. Hankins, Carolyn Stevens, 2013-12-04 This book argues that sound as it is created transmitted and perceived plays a key role in the constitution of space and community in contemporary Japan The book examines how sonic practices reflect politics aesthetics and ethics with transformative effects on human relations From right wing sound trucks to left wing protests from early 20th century jazz cafes to contemporary avant garde art forms from the sounds of U S military presence to exuberant performances organized in opposition the book rich in ethnographic detail contributes to sensory anthropology and the anthropology of contemporary Japan

Worship Sound Spaces Christine Guillebaud, Catherine Lavandier, 2019-11-18 Worship Sound Spaces unites specialists from architecture acoustic engineering and the social sciences to encourage closer analysis of the sound environments within places of worship Gathering a wide range of case studies set in Europe Asia North America the Middle East and Africa the book presents investigations into Muslim Christian and Hindu spaces These diverse cultural contexts demonstrate the composite nature of designing and experiencing places of worship Beginning with a historical overview of the three primary indicators in acoustic design of religious buildings reverberation intelligibility and clarity the second part of this edited collection offers a series of field studies devoted to perception before moving onto recent examples of restoration of the sound ambiances of former religious buildings Written for academics and students interested in architecture cultural heritage acoustics sensory studies and sound The multimedia documents of this volume may be consulted at the address <https://frama.link/WSS>

Place-Based Spaces for Networked Learning Lucila Carvalho, Peter Goodyear, Maarten de Laat, 2016-07-01 With the boundaries of place softened and extended by digital communications technologies learning in a networked society necessitates new distributions of activity across time space media and people and this development is no longer exclusive to formally designated spaces such as school classrooms lecture halls or research laboratories Place based Spaces for Networked Learning explores how qualities of physical places make both formal and informal education in a networked society possible Through a series of investigations and case studies

it illuminates the structural composition and functioning of complex learning environments This book offers a wealth of key design elements and attributes for productive learning that educational designers can reuse in multiple contexts The chapters examine how places are modified expanded or supplemented by networking technologies and practices in order to create spaces in which learners can collaboratively develop new understandings connections and capabilities Utilizing a range of diverse but complementary perspectives from anthropology archaeology architecture geography psychology sociology and urban studies Place based Spaces for Networked Learning addresses how material places and digital spaces are understood how sense can be made of new assemblages and configurations of tasks tools and people how the real time analysis of new flows of data can inform and entertain users of a space and how access to the digital realm changes our experiences with both places and other people
