Universal Catechism Reader Reflections And Responses:

The Universal Catechism Reader, 1990 The Universal Catechism Reader Mary C. Boys, 1990 Liturgical Catechesis of Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest Veronica C. Rosier, 2002

The number of Catholic communities with no priest available to celebrate Sunday Eucharist has increased steadily over 60 years. For many other forms of Sunday celebration are the statistical norm. This dramatic development coincides with Vatican II's insistence on liturgical catechesis for the baptised: the main source of their Christian spirit comes from active participation in the liturgy, especially the Sunday Eucharist. Celebrating the liturgy in all its symbolic fullness leads to inner participation in the mystery. A more profound appropriation of this living relationship with Christ comes about through well-celebrated rites and reflection on personal experience of the rites. Yet liturgical catechesis is largely ignored or dismissed because it is not understood. Liturgical celebrations frequently lack the vitality capable of leading people into the depth of the sacred mysteries they celebrate. Sunday celebrations in the absence of a priest are no exception. This book presents a systematic treatment of the modern church's teaching on liturgical catechesis. It proposes ten general principles of liturgical catechesis. These principles are used to explore and criticize the Directory for Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest (1988) as well as the rituals prepared from the Directory by the USA and Canada. Even when there can be no Sunday Mass in parishes, hospitals and nursing homes, navy ships and jails, liturgical prayer is to be a privileged place of evangelisation, catechesis, spirituality and discipleship in Christ.

An Introduction to Vatican II as an Ongoing Theological Event Matthew Levering, 2017

Contemporary scholars often refer to the event of Vatican II but what kind of an event was it? In this first book of the new CUA Press series Sacra Doctrina, Matthew Levering leads his readers to see the Council as a theological event, a period of confirming and continuing God's self-revelation in Christ into a new historical era for the Church. This is an introduction to Vatican II with a detailed summary of each of its four central documents: the dogmatic constitutions followed by explanations of how to interpret them. In contrast to other introductions which pay little attention to the theological soil in which the documents of Vatican II germinated, Levering offers a reading of each conciliar Constitution in light of a key theological author from the era: René Latourelle SJ for Dei Verbum (persons and propositions), Louis Bouyer CO for Sacrosanctum Concilium (active participation), Yves Congar OP for Lumen Gentium (true and false reform) and Henri de Lubac SJ for Gaudium et Spes (nature and grace). This theological event is ongoing, Levering demonstrates by tracing in each chapter the theological debates that have stretched from the close of the council till the present and the difficulties the Church continues to encounter in encouraging an ever deeper participation in Jesus Christ on the part of all believers. In this light, the book's final chapter compares the historicist Massimo Faggioli and Christological Robert Imbelli interpretations of Vatican II, arguing that historicism can undermine the Council's fundamental desire for a reform and renewal rooted in Christ. The conclusion addresses the concerns about secularization and loss of faith raised after the Council by Henri de Lubac, Joseph Ratzinger and Yves Congar, arguing that contemporary Vatican II scholarship needs to take these concerns more seriously
