Saved by the Duke Barbara Cartland, 2015-02-17 The Duke of Rockcliffe returns home to England from the British Army of Occupation which after the defeat of Napoleon in 1815 is located at Cambrai He had left England seven years ago when he was merely a young Lieutenant who intended to spend his life in the Army Owing to the death of several Heir Presumptives to the Dukedom he finds himself unexpectedly and to his great surprise the new Duke He also discovers that he has a Ward called Nelita the daughter of General Sir Edward Sheldon who had been his Commander Sir Edward was killed by a stray cannon ball at the Battle of Waterloo General Sheldon made the Duke Nelita's Guardian because she has inherited her mother's enormous fortune and he was afraid of fortune hunters The Duke first heard about the stunningly beautiful and lively Nelita when he read in The Morning Post a description of how in answer to a challenge she walked along the parapet of a house in Belgrave Square and was watched by a large crowd who were encouraging her He is determined that this sort of behaviour should not continue and he then finds that she has been staying with a fast member of Society called Lady Marshbanks who is not considered to be a suitable chaperone for Nelita Her next escapade is to show him that she is not a dull and conventional debutante She dresses up painted and disguised as a Society beauty and is clever enough to deceive two of the Duke's friends who are dining with him He takes her to the Ascot races where they have luncheon with the Prince Regent and the Duke guesses that she has another prank in her mind that he is resolved to stop before it goes too far Nelita however finds that a particularly unpleasant fortune hunter Sir James Jensen is trying to blackmail her best friend in London She manages to outwit Sir James but he plans a terrible revenge for Nelita She is terrified at his dastardly plot and has no idea how she can escape from him How eventually she is saved by the Duke and how she finds serene happiness is told in this exciting and unusual story by BARBARA CARTLAND In a world of his own Catharine Louisa Pirkis, 1878 Zamalek Chafika Soliman Hamamsy, 2005 Between the reign of Muhammad Ali Pasha 1805-48 and the end of the Second World War a dramatic transformation of the Egyptian sociopolitical scene took place particularly within the confines of the ruling class During that period and owing in large measure to Muhammad Ali's reforms a new class system emerged with its revised gradations from lower to upper strata The central concern of this book is the change that took place in upper class Egyptian society from a staunch conservatism toward more westernized liberal norms in the hundred years spanning the turn of the nineteenth century The district of Zamalek on the Nile island of Gezira became for a variety of reasons the preferred neighborhood for a fast growing rapidly evolving upper middle class and by the mid 1920s it had become the abode of an elite group whose way of life was manifestly more westernized than that of its predecessors Zamalek was the focal point of social change and its elite role models actively engaged in the creation of these new social norms By following the lives of one family this book describes how these people lived interreacted and changed often under the impetus of international events and looks at some of the beliefs and traditions upon which their life was based As Egypt enters the twenty first century with a noticeable reappearance of the veil and an apparent return to the values of the past this account by someone who grew up within that group is a timely examination of the social westernization of twentieth century Egypt the forces that led to it and the events that made it possible
