Le Romain de Troie then in England with Chaucers Troilus and Criseyde and then Shakespeares Troilus and Cressida But each of these authors looked at Troy through their own time and Shakespeares Troy is not quite the same as Homers In our own time it is no different as can be seen in the various books and filmes on the subject So the beauty of Troy is that it can be whatever anyone wants it to be and everyones version is as good as anybody elses It is a truly democratic subject So this is my Troy and as I love both Homer and Shakespeare they are both here intertwined first Homer then Shakespeare into what I hope is a seamless whole Records and Briefs New York State Appellate Division ,1961 Modern Hospital ,1929
