Writing Antiques George Mell,2010-07-20 Writing antiques have great charm and historic interest When quill pens began to be superseded by steel nibs and penholders these were rapidly manufactured in true Victorian fashion in numerous shapes sizes and materials Stamps first issued in 1840 were stored in special stamp boxes There were inkwells of every size and shape for desk pocket writing box or inkstand and to beautifully decorated folders for blotting paper replaced the old pounce pots of pumice for drying writing This book describes and illustrates many of the writing antiques available from magnificent inkstands to simple penwipers and inkbottles and aims to help the collector identify and assess those he may find
