Lithuanian Freedom Fighters' Tactics: Resisting The Soviet Occupation 1944-1953 Darius Bernotas, 2014-08-15 Although the end of World War II enabled devastated countries to rebuild and enjoy a time of peace another bloody war had just started in Lithuania Lithuanian Freedom Fighters LFF fought for almost a decade 1944 1953 against the Soviets who occupied their country after World War II This research focuses on LFF tactics that enabled them to oppose greatly superior Soviet forces for an extended period of time and on the factors that resulted in eventual defeat of LFF armed resistance The research utilized the elements of combat power as the measurement criteria to describe the LFF tactics The author concludes that the LFF tactics were to some extent effective LFF managed to adapt tactics in accordance with a changing situation in terms of shifting Soviet tactics and wrong initial assumptions regarding international support The other factor that contributed to the LFF success fighting the superior enemy for almost a decade was related to LFF ability to mitigate LFF combat power elements weaknesses while exploiting their strengths Nevertheless the absence of both political and material international support along with Soviet success in cutting off population support to the LFF were two main reasons that resulted in the gradual defeat of the armed resistance As asymmetric warfare is likely to continue playing an important role in future conflicts members of the military profession should find it useful to familiarize themselves with this research A thorough analysis of LFF tactics employing a combination of regular and irregular warfare to counter superior forces should assist military professionals in further deepening their understanding of asymmetric warfare phenomena thus contributing to their awareness of contemporary operational environment Soviet Freedom Anthony Barnett, Nella Bielski, 1988
