Harold Gasson's Steam Days Harold Gasson,2020-12-12 When Harold Gasson first put pen to paper more than forty years ago it was at a time when there was a growing resurgence of interest in the steam railway Three of his books described his life as a fireman based at Didcot shed from the early 1940s Firing Days was followed by Footplate Days and then Nostalgia Days Finally after Harold had forsaken the footplate for the signal box came the final instalment Signalling Days All were eagerly sought after at the time for they described the railway readers wanted to hear about providing a nostalgic perspective which could be enjoyed from the comfort of one s arm chair Out of print for several decades all four books have now been reprinted and are available together for the first time complete with a new set of illustrations The steam engines and most of the mechanical signal boxes of Harold s working days may have been long consigned to history but in these well written and enjoyable books they are brought vividly back to life for a new audience to enjoy as well for those who recall his era for whom these tales will reawaken treasured memories Iron Perry Fairfax Nursey,1845 Mechanics' Magazine ,1845 Bradshaw's monthly railway and steam navigation guide George Bradshaw,1906 The Mechanic's Magazine, Museum, Register, Journal and Gazette ,1845 Hearings United States. Congress Senate,1967 The ABC, Or, Alphabetical Railway Guide ,1901 Scottish Steam's Final Fling Keith Widdowson,2017-05-01 In May 1967 Scotland became the third of the six British Railways regions to dispense with the steam locomotive bringing an iconic era of Britain s transport heritage closer to its demise Residing over 300 miles away then teenaged Keith Widdowson s pilgrimages north of the border were marathon undertakings Abysmal overnight time keeping missed connections trains allegedly booked as steam but turning up as diesel each journey could have been a disaster but those setbacks were easily forgotten after many successes such as in catching runs with LNER A2s A4s V2s and B1s as well as BR Clans Accompanied with brief historical data of routes and stations many no longer extant visited alongside photographs from the author s archives this book is a collection of reminiscences from the final two years of steam that anyone with a penchant for railways will enjoy Report of the Postmaster General on the Post Office ,1897 Mechanics Magazine John I Knight,1845 Annual Report Vermont. Public Service Commission,1910 Engineering News-record ,1920 Southern Steam Days Remembered Kevin Derrick,2017-02-15 A nostalgic look back at the days of Steam in the Southern Region Official Proceedings ,1930 Steamship and Other Power Vessels ,1902 The New York Supplement ,1914 The Hotels of Europe (America, Asia, Australasia & Africa). ,1903 Journal of the National Dental Association ,1918 Includes the proceedings The Engineer ,1908 Management and Administration in Manufacturing Industries ,1925
