The Devil's Admiral Frederick Ferdinand Moore,1913 The Devil's Admiral Frederick Moore,2012-09-21 I had to crawl over the body of the mate in order to get clear of the tier of bunks and thinking it possible that Harris might have a pistol in his clothing or had dropped one as he fell into the forecandle I examined his pockets I got no pistol but did find a box of matches and standing with my back to the scuttle to protect the flame from the wind and also to shade the light from the open scuttle I struck a match and hurriedly looked over the littered deck of the forecandle I struck several matches at intervals in this way waiting between lights to make sure that no one had seen the flashes from the upper deck If Harris had had pistols his murderers must have taken them I did find a dozen or more cartridges of heavy calibre loose in the side pocket of his coat but those and the matches were all that resulted from my ghoulish work
