Wedding Speech Example

1. Opening: Express Gratitude

"Good evening, everyone. For those who may not know me, my name is [Your Name], and I have the absolute privilege of being [relation to the couple—e.g., the groom's best friend, the bride's sibling]. First, let me say how incredible it is to see so many of you here today to celebrate this beautiful occasion. Let's take a moment to appreciate the stunning job [Couple's Names] and their families have done in bringing this magical day to life. Can we give them a round of applause?"

2. Share a Personal Anecdote or Story

"I've had the honor of knowing [Groom/Bride] for [x years], and over that time, I've witnessed so many moments that reveal their kind heart, sense of humor, and unwavering loyalty. One moment that stands out was [share a story, e.g., a funny or heartfelt memory]. When [Bride/Groom] entered their life, it was as if a missing piece had finally been found. I could see how happy they made each other, from the way they laughed at the smallest things to the way they supported each other through challenges. They've built a foundation of love and partnership that inspires us all."

3. Compliment the Couple

"[Bride] has a warmth and charm that can light up any room, and [Groom] balances her with his steadfastness and incredible sense of humor. Together, they are proof that when two people complement each other so perfectly, they create something truly extraordinary. Their love is genuine, selfless, and enduring."

4. Offer Advice or Well Wishes

"[Bride and Groom], as you start this beautiful new chapter together, remember that marriage is not about perfect moments, but about finding perfection in every moment you share. Be each other's anchor, cheerleader, and safe space. And don't forget to laugh—a lot!"

Wedding Speeches - a Practical Guide for Delivering an Unforgettable Wedding Speech Sam Siv, 2014-09-02

A Practical Guide for Delivering an Unforgettable Wedding Speech: Your wedding day should be the most important day of your life. It is the day when all your friends and family, as well as the friends and family of your husband, gather together to celebrate your big day. Unless you are lucky enough to be able to afford a wedding planner, you will have so many things to think about and plan from the pre-wedding parties to the wedding ceremony and reception, and even the honeymoon. As part of your wedding day, it is expected that certain people in your wedding party give speeches to congratulate you on your newly married status and also to tell a few stories about you and the groom. To a certain extent, you don't need to worry about this aspect of the wedding unless you intend to make a speech yourself. However, you will want to have an input into who makes the speeches and how long they are, because this will have a roll-on effect on everything else that happens at your wedding reception. Who gives the speeches and toasts at your wedding really depends on what you want. It is traditional for the male side of the wedding party only to give speeches. You may even want to cut this down further and just ask the best man and groom to give a speech. Then again, you may want to laugh in the face of tradition and make sure the female side of the wedding party, including yourself, have the chance to say something. Of course, you will need to check with everyone that they are happy to give a speech. The groom and best man probably won't have much choice, but others may prefer to stay quiet and simply listen to what the main members of the wedding party have to say.

Reviews:

By Author Natasja Hellenthal: I bought this book on Amazon.co.uk. This is THE BOOK to prepare and create your wedding speech. I was searching for a book like this as one of my best friends is getting married, so naturally, my speech has to be perfect. There are so many tips and ideas to start you off with that I will be telling other people about it too. It has many chapters for different speeches: best man, bridesmaids, grooms, etc. so take your pick.

By Vanessa D: I bought this book along with the author's book on wedding planning as I am the upcoming maid of honor to my best friend's wedding. While this book provides information on what my speech could contain.

By Author Cliff Roberts: No more freezing in public. Wow, a great guide that anyone can use to help make themselves look like a pro speaker. You'll learn the order of the speeches and when to use them.
