Illustrated Edition of the Life and Escape of William Wells Brown from American Slavery William Wells Brown,2021-07-03 A former slave writes of his experiences Excerpt I was born in Lexington Kentucky one of the Western slave states My mother was the slave of Dr John Young my father was a slaveholder and a relative of my master Dr Young was the owner of from forty to fifty slaves most of whom were field hands I have no recollection of Kentucky as my master removed from that state during my infancy to a large plantation which he had purchased near the town of St Charles My master being a politician soon found those who were ready to put him into office for the favors he could render them and a few years after his arrival in Missouri he was elected to a seat in the legislature In his absence from home everything was left in charge of Mr Cook the overseer and he soon became more tyrannical and cruel Among the slaves on the plantation was one by the name of Randall He was a man about six feet high and well proportioned and known as a man of great strength and power He was considered the most valuable and able bodied slave on the plantation but no matter how good or useful a slave may be he seldom escapes the lash But it was not so with Randall He had been on the plantation since my earliest recollection and I had never known of his being flogged No thanks were due to the master or overseer for this I have often heard him declare that no white man should ever whip him that he would die first Catalog of Visual Media Suburban Library System (Burr Ridge, Ill.).
