Three Faces Of Mourning:

Three Faces of Mourning Salman Akhtar, 2006-11 This small volume comprises primarily papers presented in 2001 at the 32nd Annual Margaret S Mahler Symposium on Child Development in Philadelphia Pennsylvania Mourning and the importance of the capacity to bear some helplessness while still finding pleasure in life are central to this tightly organized volume The multi faceted processes involved in mourning and adaptation are addressed Expectably Mahler s conceptual contributions are liberally referenced throughout the volume separation individuation libidinal object constancy the unavoidable losses of developmental changes and mourning of the loss of one ness In keeping with the design of the symposium the book is organized around four primary chapters presentations each followed by a discussion chapter The unifying theme is mourning of the loss of a primary object either early in life or in adulthood

Three Faces of Mourning Salman Akhtar, 2001 Mourning and the importance of the capacity to bear some helplessness while still finding pleasure in life are central to this tightly organized volume The multi faceted processes involved in mourning and adaptation are addressed

The Three Faces of Mourning Kristan Hodgkins, 2019

In Leaps and Bounds Salman Akhtar, 2022-05-12 Salman Akhtar presents three rich essays brimming with psychoanalytic theory on personality development and how such knowledge enhances treatment Essay 1 starts at the earliest infancy and takes the reader all along the path past adolescence It addresses key developmental landmarks including Establishing a satisfactory parental bond Moving towards autonomy and independence Acquiring a moral sense Consolidating identity Essay 2 picks up after adolescence It addresses the psychosocial challenges characteristic of young adulthood midlife and old age such as Assuming the role of a wage earner and house holder Enjoying sex love and marriage Downsizing and retiring from one s job Dealing with the deaths of friends and family and facing one s own mortality Essay 3 builds upon the theory that has gone before and examines how a deepened understanding of psychic development can inform the clinician s approach With an emphasis on development as a lifelong process this essay provides clear guidelines for facilitating such growth including Creating psychic space for thinking Helping the patient find words for inner experiences Validating the patient s reality Enhancing the sense of personal agency in the patient The complex tapestry woven by these three essays is extended by a prologue and an epilogue The prologue opens with the pre self events before birth that impact on who we become The epilogue discusses the post self how we live on as memories held by those who knew us In Leaps and Bounds deepens the understanding of the nuances of human development It is key reading for practising and trainee psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists to enhance their clinical practice It is highly recommended for all enquiring minds looking to expand their knowledge of what makes us who we are

Divorce and Loss Joshua Ehrlich, 2014-05-15 Divorce and Loss Helping Adults and Children Mourn When a Marriage Comes Apart places loss and mourning at the center of the divorce experience and details how therapists can facilitate mourning through individual therapy and through interventions with parents The book offers detailed clinical vignettes to illuminate family members reactions to divorce and to highlight interventions Ehrlich also explores how failures of mourning in response to divorce create difficulties for people including bitter high conflict divorces He examines how therapists can intervene more effectively with difficult divorces and avoid ethical and clinical pitfalls In addition the book examines the very strong feelings that divorce elicits in therapists and how to deal with these constructively
