Ray Taras

Three-arched Bridge:

The Three-Arched Bridge Ismail Kadare, 2012-01-31 In the Balkan Peninsula history's long disputed bridge between Asia and Europe the receding Byzantine empire has left behind a patchwork of warring peoples who fight over everything from their pastures of sheep to the authorship of their countless legends One such gruesome tale declares that a castle under construction cannot be finished until a young mason's bride has been walled up alive one breast left exposed to suckle her growing infant even after her death Myth becomes perverse reality when a mason is plastered into a bridge over a strategically important river where his will not be the last human sacrifice

The Three-Arched Bridge Ismail Kadare, 2011 A bridge under construction in 14th Century Albania is secretly sabotaged by ferry men who are afraid of being made redundant Officially they blame a prophecy that no bridge will stand over the river without human sacrifice to the water spirits So the builders immure a villager and the bridge gets built A Balkan parable by the author of The Pyramid

Europe Old and New Ray Taras, 2009 Is Europe indeed uniting or instead falling apart as a result of anti immigrant prejudices a massive Islamic influx and ancient intra European hatreds This innovative and engaging book explores the sources of Europe's culture based divide arguing that the idea of two Europes is grounded both in reality and myth The accession process that brought a dozen new members into the European Union after 2004 has highlighted the persisting gulf between old and new Europe despite the many physical barriers that have crumbled Ray Taras examines the treaties political rhetoric citizen attitudes and literary narratives of belonging and separation that both bind and fray the fabric of Europe Throughout this interdisciplinary work provides a comprehensive hard hitting and unabashed review of how enlarged Europe embraces contrasting understandings of its political home
