Threefold Commonwealth 1923:

The President's Report University of Chicago, 1925 1897-98 includes summaries for 1891 to 1897 The American economic review, 1924 The Esoteric Aspect of the Social Question Rudolf Steiner, 2013-05-14 Although recent years have seen major advances in science and technology the social aspect of life still presents major problems for western societies The general increase in destructive antisocial behaviour over past decades has raised the profile of social issues yet effective ideas to tackle the difficulties are often nowhere to be found Many decades ago Rudolf Steiner suggested new ways of organizing society and engaging with social questions This book presents his inner esoteric perspective on such concerns The starting point asserts Steiner must be the proper valuing of the human element in the world and a deeper understanding of its relation to nature and the cosmos The organization of society cannot be made in an arbitrary way but should reflect the relationship of human beings to the spiritual world Steiner goes on to discuss the threefold archetype of social life the political state economics and the spiritual cultural aspect and how these can interact in a healthy way leading to a vibrant evolving society These popular lectures originally published as The Inner Aspect of the Social Question appear here in a new translation and with the addition of a previously unpublished lecture Early Beginnings of Anthroposophically Extended Medicine Bertram von Zabern, 2024-10-15 How can therapists and doctors strive to treat not just illness or disability but the whole human being Bertram von Zabern MD explores this question as he follows the historical thread of anthroposophically extended medicine in North America and weaves it into a tapestry illuminating the connections between the early pioneers of the field and the modern institutions such as Weleda USA which stand upon the foundations they laid In a humble and conversational manner von Zabern shares the stories of physicians who inspired by the impulse given by Rudolf Steiner in his 1920 lecture series Introducing Anthroposophical Medicine set out to create a regimen of care which recognizes the human being as a spiritual being while still attending to physical health Those familiar with anthroposophical medicine will recognize the names of lauded doctors such as Christoph Linder Franz Winkler Sigfrid Knauer and Traute Lafrenz Page Early Beginnings also traces the trajectory of therapeutic or curative education in North America Beginning with the efforts of Gladys and William Hahn at Lossing Manor in 1938 the author shows how with the help of Dr Karl K nig and Carlo Pietzner the therapeutic education movement has blossomed into a nationwide phenomenon which continues to help those with developmental disabilities live in dignity and realize their potential World-economy Rudolf Steiner, 1936 Subject-index to the author-catalogue. 1908-10. 2 v National Library (India), 1929 Library Items University of Oregon.
