The Great German Films Frederick W. Ott, 1986 Since the beginning of the 20th century German cinema has played an integral part in cinema history from Nosferatu The Cabinet of Dr Caligari and the films of Fritz Lang to 70s directors like Fassbinder and Herzog All are listed here together with many rare stills A Critical History of German Film Stephen Brockmann, 2010 A history of German film dealing with individual films as works of art has long been needed Existing histories tend to treat cinema as an economic rather than an aesthetic phenomenon earlier surveys that do engage with individual films do not include films of recent decades This book treats representative films from the beginnings of German film to the present Providing historical context through an introduction and interchapters preceding the treatments of each era s films the volume is suitable for semester or year long survey courses and for anyone with an interest in German cinema The films The Student of Prague The Cabinet of Dr Caligari The Last Laugh Metropolis The Blue Angel M Triumph of the Will The Great Love The Murderers Are among Us Sun Seekers Trace of Stones The Legend of Paul and Paula Solo Sunny The Bridge Young T rless Aguirre The Wrath of God Germany in Autumn The Marriage of Maria Braun The Tin Drum Marianne and Juliane Wings of Desire Maybe Maybe Not Rossini Run Lola Run Good Bye Lenin Head On The Lives of Others Stephen Brockmann is Professor of German at Carnegie Mellon University and past President of the German Studies Association

German Film after Germany Randall Halle, 2010-10-01 What is the work of film in the age of transnational production To answer that question Randall Halle focuses on the film industry of Germany one of Europe s largest film markets and one of the world s largest film producing nations In the 1990s Germany experienced an extreme transition from a state subsidized mode of film production that was free of anxious concerns about profit and audience entertainment to a mode dominated by private interest and big capital At the same time the European Union began actively drawing together the national markets of Germany and other European nations sublating their individual significances into a synergistic whole This book studies these changes broadly but also focuses on the transformations in their particular national context It balances film politics and film aesthetics tracing transformations in financing along with analyses of particular films to describe the effects on the film object itself Halle concludes that we witness currently the emergence of a new transnational aesthetic a fundamental shift in cultural production with ramifications for communal identifications state cohesion and national economies The German Cinema Book Tim Bergfelder, Erica Carter, Deniz Göktürk, Claudia Sandberg, 2020-02-20 This comprehensively revised updated and significantly extended edition introduces German film history from its beginnings to the present day covering key periods and movements including early and silent cinema Weimar cinema Nazi cinema the New German Cinema the Berlin School the cinema of migration and moving images in the digital era Contributions by leading international scholars are grouped into sections that focus on genre stars authorship film production distribution and exhibition theory and politics including women s and queer cinema and transnational connections Spotlight articles within each section offer key case studies including of individual films that illuminate larger histories Heimat Downfall The Lives of Others The Edge of Heaven and many more stars from Ossi Oswalda and Hans Albers to Hanna Schygulla and Nina Hoss directors including F W Murnau Walter Ruttmann Wim Wenders and Helke Sander and film theorists including Siegfried Kracauer and Bela Balazs The volume provides a methodological template for the study of a national cinema in a transnational horizon
