The Green Factor:

The Green Factor In German Politics Gerd Langguth,2019-07-11 The Green Party evolved out of a number of protest movements of the late 1960s and 1970s and became a major political factor in the Federal Republic of Germany in 1983 when it drew enough votes to send twenty seven members to the Bundestag The author follows the party s rise from new social and ecological groups to its current place in the Federal parliament and provincial legislatures He addresses the questions raised by Green Party members and by the unrest they have engendered whether they believe in parliamentary democracy what effect their policy of replacing delegates in parliament at midsession will have on the parliament and the party and how they relate to Germany s traditional political parties The answers to these and other questions form the background for an appraisal of the Green party in which the author traces the development of its role from a political irritant to a factor of serious influence
