What A Beautiful Sunday

James Granville Adderley

What A Beautiful Sunday:

32 Ways to Become a Great Sunday School Teacher Delia Halverson, 1997 A self directed teacher training resource offering four courses of study for both experienced teachers and beginners For many churches teacher training is a once a year event or even a budget casualty 32 Ways to Become a Great Sunday School Teacher uses self study sessions to help teachers design individualized programs that assist them in learning how to teach New teachers will learn the basics of teaching how faith develops the ages and stages of learning veterans will find ways to enrich their prayer lives and incorporate different teaching styles in a lesson A sampler of topics How to Study a Bible Passage Multiple Intelligence Learning Death Illness Other Crises Using Questions in Teaching The Gospels Prayer in the Classroom The Sacraments Symbols of Christianity

Jorge Semprun Ursula Tidd, 2017-12-02 The Spanish Communist exile and Francophone Holocaust writer Jorge Semprun 1923 is a major contributor to contemporary debates on the politics and ethics of remembering the Franco era Communism and the Holocaust in French Spanish and broader European contexts His sophisticated literary testimonies have become landmark texts not least for their commitment to represent the lived experience of history In this first detailed study in English of Jorge Semprun s writing Ursula Tidd shows how Semprun explores the parameters of self writing as an address to the other in a richly intertextual corpus which weaves together history fiction and auto bio thanatography and gives voice to the traumatic experiences of geographical and political exile and concentration camp internment Ursula Tidd is Senior Lecturer in French Studies at the University of Manchester UK

The Future of Testimony Antony Rowland, Jane Kilby, 2014-06-20 Celebrating the twentieth anniversary of the groundbreaking Testimony this collection brings together the leading academics from a range of scholarly fields to explore the meaning use and value of testimony in law and politics its relationship to other forms of writing like literature and poetry and its place in society It visits testimony in relation to a range of critical developments including the rise of Truth Commissions and the explosion and radical extension of human rights discourse renewed cultural interest in perpetrators of violence alongside the phenomenal commercial success of victim testimony in the form of misery memoirs and the emergence of disciplinary interest in genocide terror and other violent atrocities These issues are necessarily inflected by the question of witnessing violence pain and suffering at both the local and global level across cultures and in postcolonial contexts At the volume s core is an interdisciplinary concern over the current and future nature of witnessing as it plays out through a new Europe post 9 11 US war torn Africa and in countless refugee and detention centers and as it is worked out by lawyers journalists medics and novelists The collection draws together an international range of case studies including discussion of the former Yugoslavia Gaza and Rwanda and encompasses a cross disciplinary set of texts novels plays testimonial writing and hybrid testimonies The volume situates itself at the cutting edge of debate and as such brings together the leading thinkers in the field requiring that each address the future anticipating and setting the future terms of
