What Color Would You Choose:

The Human Species Perspective Rev. Robert Emerick, LCSW, 2024-05-10 Rev Emerick gives us a view of human life he calls The Human Species Perspective which focuses on the survival and well being of the entire human species He introduces the concept of Wellbeing Love and shows how wellbeing love is essential to our species survival and well being Rev Emerick applies the concept of wellbeing love to dimension after dimension of human life Philosophy Religion Human Nature Society and our Way of Life At every step along the way he provides sensible and plausible observations and examples to illustrate these dimensions of wellbeing love He also includes some generally unknown and startling information on Adam Smith and Charles Darwin This work is an amazing tour de force Roscoe Hill Roscoe Hill is Professor Emeritus of Philosophy and Dean Emeritus in The University of Denver Denver Colorado and author of A ROAD LESS TRAVELED 2023 Exploring

Probability in School Graham A. Jones, 2005-03-21 Exploring Probability in School provides a new perspective into research on the teaching and learning of probability It creates this perspective by recognizing and analysing the special challenges faced by teachers and learners in contemporary classrooms where probability has recently become a mainstream part of the curriculum from early childhood through high school The authors of the book discuss the nature of probability look at the meaning of probabilistic literacy and examine student access to powerful ideas in probability during the elementary middle and high school years Moreover they assemble and analyse research based pedagogical knowledge for teachers that can enhance the learning of probability throughout these school years With the book's rich application of probability research to classroom practice it will not only be essential reading for researchers and graduate students involved in probability education it will also capture the interest of educational policy makers curriculum personnel teacher educators and teachers
