Women With Vision:

Women with Vision Susan Carol Peterson, Courtney Ann Vaughn-Roberson, 1988 The Roman Catholic order of Sisters of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary founded in Ireland in 1776 by Nano Nagle as the Society of Charitable Instruction of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and migrating to North America in the mid 1850s remains committed to tutoring healing and nurturing

Women with 2020 Vision Jeanne Stevenson-Moessner, 2020-10-06 Women haven't always had the right to vote From such diverse voices as John Stuart Mill and Cokie Roberts the absolute right of both women and men to vote has been affirmed And yet resistance to women's suffrage even by women themselves has a long and painful history In this exciting volume thirteen theologians and religious leaders in America look back at the historic victory in 1920 when women in the United States won the right to vote They then assess the current situation and speak into the future Women with 2020 Vision American Theologians on the Voice Vote and Vision of Women commemorates the 100th anniversary of women in the United States obtaining the right to vote a story that must be told and retold and reflected upon in light of the current sociopolitical theological realities

Fire Dreams Laura McTighe, 2024-01-22 For thirty five years the New Orleans based Black feminist collective Women With A Vision WWAV has fought for the liberation of their communities through reproductive justice harm reduction abolition feminism racial justice and sex workers rights In 2012 shortly after one of WWAV's biggest organizing victories arsonists firebombed and destroyed their headquarters Fire Dreams is an innovative collaboration between WWAV and Laura McTighe who work in community to build a social movement ethnography of the organization's post arson rebirth Rooting WWAV in the geography of the South and the living history of generations of Black feminist thinkers McTighe and WWAV weave together stories from their founders pioneering work during the Black HIV/AIDS crisis in the 1980s and their groundbreaking organizing to end criminalization in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina with other movements for liberation as accomplices Together the authors refuse the logics of racial capitalism and share WWAV's own world building knowledges as well as their methods for living these Black feminist futures now Fire Dreams is a vital toolkit for grassroots organizers activist scholars and all those who dream to make the world otherwise

Vascular Disease in Women Caitlin Hicks,Linda Harris,2021-07-16 Vascular Disease in Women highlights the epidemiology natural history and treatment of vascular disease specifically as it pertains to women The book provides a thorough overview of what is known and what is now known about vascular disease in women and highlights opportunities for further education and research on this topic The book will serve as an essential reference for both clinicians and researchers discussing the disease prevalence treatment options and treatment outcomes for vascular disease in women and explores the need for future research in vascular disease specifically as it pertains to women Provides a comprehensive overview of vascular disease as it affects women Includes contributions from world renowned vascular surgeons of both genders who have a vested interest in women's vascular health Covers what is known and not known about vascular disease in women prompting further research in the area for what is still unknown Women in the Studio Paula Wolfe,2019-06-25 The field of popular music production is overwhelmingly male dominated Here Paula Wolfe discusses gendered notions of creativity and examines the significant under representation of women in studio production Wolfe brings an invaluable perspective as both a working artist producer and as a scholar thereby offering a new body of research based on interviews and first hand observation Wolfe demonstrates that patriarchal frameworks continue to form the backbone of the music industry establishment but that women's work in the creation and control of sound presents a potent challenge to gender stereotyping marginalisation and containment of women's achievements that is still in evidence in music marketing practices and media representation in the digital era Women in Management Alan T. Belasen,2017-04-07 This book presents a realistic perspective on the paradoxes employees face when navigating work and personal responsibilities for career success The author answers the critical question of how to achieve sustainable and rewarding work life integration from a perspective of both and rather than either or While most books focus on a fragmented hyper effective view of women and leadership this book advances the need for an integrated approach Its Competing Values Framework acts as an organizing model that aligns personal competency with organizational capability helping readers to identify important leadership roles and competencies break societal barriers and choose the right set of behaviors to fit their personal and professional goals In chapter text boxes provide personal insight from real employees both entering and established in leadership positions offering a varied perspective on the challenges and resolutions available to women in management As men become more engaged with their families they too will find this book a useful tool Students in diversity management women and management career development leadership and organizational behavior classes will benefit from this realistic and sustainable alternative to the have it all model
