The Meal:

The Practice of the Meal Benedetta Cappellini, David Marshall, Elizabeth Parsons, 2016-03-31 Reflecting a growing interest in consumption practices and particularly relating to food this cross disciplinary volume brings together diverse perspectives on our often taken for granted domestic mealtimes By unpacking the meal as a set of practices acquisition appropriation appreciation and disposal it shows the role of the market in such processes by looking at how consumers make sense of marketplace discourses whether this is how brand discourses influence shopping habits or how consumers interact with the various spaces of the market Revealing food consumption through both material and symbolic aspects and the role that marketplace institutions discourses and places play in shaping perpetuating or transforming them this holistic approach reveals how consumer practices of the meal and the attendant meaning making processes which surround them are shaped This wide ranging collection will be of great interest to a wide range of scholars interested in marketing consumer behaviour and food studies as well as the sociology of both families and food Ritual, Emotion, and Materiality in the Early Christian World Soham Al-Suadi, Richard S. Ascough, Richard E. DeMaris, 2021-12-30 This volume advances our understanding of early Christianity as a lived religion by approaching it through its rites the emotions and affects surrounding those rites and the material setting for the practice of them The connections between emotions and ritual between rites and their materiality and between emotions and their physical manifestation in ancient Mediterranean culture have been inadequately explored as yet especially with regard to early Christianity and its water and dining rites Readers will find all three areas ritual emotion and materiality engaged in this exemplary interdisciplinary study which provides fresh insights into early Christianity and its world Ritual Emotion and Materiality in the Early Christian World will be of special interest to interdisciplinary minded researchers seminarians and students who are attentive to theory and method and those with an interest in the New Testament and earliest Christianity It will also appeal to those working on ancient Jewish and Greco Roman religion emotion and ritual from a comparative standpoint The Grasses of Tennessee Ralph Levi Watts, Charles E.
