The Soviet Propaganda Machine:

The Soviet Propaganda Machine Martin Ebon,1987 Putin's Propaganda Machine Marcel H. Van Herpen,2015-10-01 Putin's Propaganda Machine examines Russia's information war one of the most striking features of its intervention in Ukraine Marcel H Van Herpen argues that the Kremlin's propaganda offensive is a carefully prepared strategy implemented and tested over the last decade Initially intended as a tool to enhance Russia's soft power it quickly developed into one of the main instruments of Russia's new imperialism reminiscent of the height of the Cold War The author describes a multifaceted strategy that makes use of diverse instruments including mimicking Western public diplomacy initiatives hiring Western public relations firms setting up front organizations buying Western media outlets financing political parties organizing a worldwide propaganda offensive through the Kremlin's cable network RT and publishing paid supplements in leading Western newspapers In this information war key roles are assigned to the Russian diaspora and the Russian Orthodox Church the latter focused on spreading so called traditional values and attacking universal human rights and Western democracy in international fora Van Herpen demonstrates that the Kremlin's propaganda machine not only plays a central role in its hybrid war in Ukraine but also has broader international objectives targeting in particular Europe's two leading countries France and Germany with the goal of forming a geopolitical triangle consisting of a Moscow Berlin Paris axis intended to roll back the influence of NATO and the United States in Europe Drawing on years of research Van Herpen shows how the Kremlin has built an array of soft power instruments and transformed them into effective weapons in a new information war with the West The Department of State Bulletin ,1951 The official monthly record of United States foreign policy Congressional Record United States. Congress,1953 The American Photo Engraver ,1923 The Soviet and Post-Soviet Review ,2012 Speak Clearly Into the Chandelier John C. Q. Roberts,2000 This book provides a unique view of British Russian relations during the last 15 years of the Soviet regime and the first 10 years following its collapse by one of the main British players From Incarceration to Repatriation Susan C. I. Grunewald,2024-07-15 From Incarceration to Repatriation explores the lives and memories of the nearly 1.5 million German POWs who were held by the Soviet Union during and after World War II and released in phases through 1956 seven years longer than the prisoners of any other Allied nation Susan C I Grunewald argues that Soviet leadership deliberately kept able bodied German POWs to supplement their labor force after the end of the war The Soviet Union lost 27 million citizens and a quarter of its physical assets during the war motivating Soviet leadership to harness the labor of German POWs for as long as possible Engaging with recently declassified documents in former Soviet archives archival material from multiple German governments as well as innovative use of digital humanities methods and geographic information system GIS mapping Grunewald demonstrates that Soviet authorities detained German POWs primarily for economic rather than punitive reasons In fact the GIS mapping of the historical materials makes it clear that most of the four thousand POW camps across the USSR were strategically located near industrial infrastructure and natural resource sites that were critical to postwar economic reconstruction From Incarceration to Repatriation is the first book to draw together the distinct fields of Soviet and German history to provide a more nuanced and comprehensive understanding of German POW captivity in the USSR during and after World War II Attending to the ways that the memory of German POWs remains in circulation in both the former Soviet Union and Germany Grunewald tracks the political repercussions of war commemoration Oil!
