Silver,2020-05-27T00:00:00Z This third edition of Building a Better World offers a comprehensive introductory overview of Canada s labour movement The book includes an analysis of why workers form unions assesses their organization and democratic potential examines issues related to collective bargaining grievances and strike activity charts the historical development of labour unions and describes the gains unions have achieved for their members and all working people

Fringe Banking in Winnipeg's North End Jerry Buckland,Thibault Martin,Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives,2005 The geographic boundaries of the North End as determined by the North End Community Renewal Corporation is north of the CPR tracks south of Caruthers Avenue east of McPhillips Street and west of the Red River This 5 In his examination of fringe banking in the US Caskey 1994 p 84 argues that a chief reason for their rise is the increase in the number of households without bank accounts rising from 9 5% of the US population in 1977 to 13 5% in 1989 the result of processes affecting banks supply side and bank clients demand side The second focus credit risk related to high levels of debt servicing and personal bankruptcy the contraction in the bank and finance company supply of non revolving unsecured loans the growing numbers of people with higher credit risk due to increased legal and illegal immigration to the US the increase in gold prices the growing awareness among entrepreneurs of the profits in fringe banking Winnipeg and the 16 5% of the population of the North End North End both have around 13 5% of comprise a smaller percentage at 11 9% their population over the age of retire of the population of Winnipeg This is sub the number of people contributing income stantially higher than the 35% average in to a household the greater the likelihood the rest of Winnipeg Manitoba Politics and Government Paul Thomas,Curtis Brown,2010-09-01 Manitoba has always been a province in the middle geographically economically and culturally Lacking Quebec s cultural distinctiveness Ontario s traditional economic dominance or Alberta s combustible mix of prairie populism and oil wealth Manitoba appears to blend into the background of the Canadian family portrait But Manitoba has a distinct political culture one that has been overlooked in contemporary political studies Manitoba Politics and Government brings together the work of political scientists historians sociologists economists public servants and journalists to present a comprehensive analysis of the province s political life and its careful mutual fund model approach to economic and social policy that mirrors the steady and cautious nature of its citizens Moving beyond the Legislature the authors address contemporary social issues like poverty environmental stewardship gender equality health care and the province s growing Aboriginal population to reveal the evolution of public policy in the province They also examine the province s role at the intergovernmental and international level Manitoba Politics and Government is a rich and fascinating account of a province that strives for the centre for the delicate middle ground where individualism and collectivism overlap and where a multitude of different cultures and traditions create a highly balanced society

In a Voice of Their Own: Urban Aboriginal Community Development, 2006 This paper focuses on urban Aboriginal community development We draw upon the experiences of 26 Aboriginal people who have been and are active in various forms of community development in Winnipeg s inner city The study shows how Aboriginal people have been constructed as the other in Canadian society The process of colonization caused great damage to Aboriginal people Over and over the 26 Aboriginal people with whom we spoke referred to the process of colonization as being at the root of Aboriginal people s problems In many cases their personal testimonies were painful and moving

"Indians Wear Red" Elizabeth Comack, Lawrence Deane, Larry Morrissette, Jim Silver, 2020-11-26T00:00:00Z With the advent of Aboriginal street gangs such as Indian Posse Manitoba Warriors and Native Syndicate Winnipeg garnered a reputation as the gang capital of Canada Yet beyond the stereotypes of outsiders little is known about these street gangs and the factors and conditions that have produced them Indians Wear Red locates Aboriginal street gangs in the context of the racialized poverty that has become entrenched in the colonized space of Winnipeg s North End Drawing upon extensive interviews with Aboriginal street gang members as well as with Aboriginal women and elders the authors develop an understanding from inside the inner city and through the voices of Aboriginal people especially street gang members themselves While economic restructuring and neo liberal state responses can account for the global proliferation of street gangs the authors argue that colonialism is a crucial factor in the Canadian context particularly in western Canadian urban centres Young Aboriginal people have resisted their social and economic exclusion by acting collectively as Indians But just as colonialism is destructive so too are street gang activities including the illegal trade in drugs Solutions lie not in quick fixes or getting tough on crime but in decolonization re connecting Aboriginal people with their cultures and building communities in which they can safely live and work

Transforming Or Reforming Capitalism John Loxley, 2007 Growing worldwide interest in community economic development has led to a blossoming of how to manuals as well as analyses of co operatives development corporations gender financing etc Yet in all this discussion very little is said about the basic objective of CED Is it designed to fill holes left by capitalism or is it intended to replace it There is equally little on a theory of CED This book draws on several disciplines particularly economics sociology and political studies to assess the state of CED theory and to identify implicit issues for building that theory It emphasizes the necessity to draw theoretical insights from each discipline in the process hewing the efficacy of interdisciplinary approaches It concludes with a discussion of both future theoretical directions and of what existing theory has to say about achieving a transformative

CED pub website Resilience in Action Michael Ungar, Linda Liebenberg, 2008 Mental health specialists and researchers contend that the development of resilience in youth is facilitated at several levels Relational cultural individual and governmental factors all have a strong influence over the mental well being of young people Resilience in Action looks at youth interventions with a view to fostering resilience in those living in adverse situations and conditions In order to provide a practical approach to the issue the essays in this volume explore the components of successful interventions encouraging the transmission of effective practices from one community to another across borders It is organized into four sections each dealing with a different aspect of work with at risk youth The first section focuses on individual health and the ways in which intervention and therapy strengthen personal resources The second section explores the dynamics of interventions in relation to specific contexts and localized relationships emphasizing holistic approaches to youth work A review of the cultural relevance of resilience follows in section three and the fourth considers ways of increasing the accessibility to resources that encourage healthy development Featuring contributors from a variety of academic and cultural backgrounds Resilience in Action offers diverse answers to many of the persistent questions mental health professionals ask regarding how to enhance resilience

Doing Community Economic Development John Loxley, Jim Silver, Kathleen Sexsmith, 2007 Co Published by Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives

Challenges and Perils William K. Carroll, Robert Ratner, 2005 The problems of and prospects for a social democratic government in contemporary Canada are explored in this in depth analysis of governance at the provincial level during the 1990s and the early 21st century Specific attention is paid to the competitive nationalism of the Parti Qu b cois the pragmatic idealism of the New Democratic Party NDP in Manitoba and the NDP s embrace of Third Way neoliberalism Through five case studies this examination details the constraints of neoliberal globalization and the resulting effects on the governments in different provinces

Racisms in the New World Order Narayan Gopalkrishnan, Hurriyet Babacan, 2007 Racism is a significant social problem that diminishes the social fabric of society creates social tension and impacts on the life chances of the people involved It impacts upon those who perpetuate it on those who are at the receiving end TM as well as on those who are not directly involved in the problem Within the complexities of a globalized world with its networks of actors and processes racism is constantly changing its form and impacts This book examines the contemporary forms of racisms evolving within this context moving beyond the traditional idea of a single monolithic racism based on biology or culture It offers new perspectives on theorising the new racisms and looks at the intersections with different forms of prejudice and discrimination such as sexism and ageism The book places the discussion of racism within the contemporary discussions of the War on Terror TM and the allied issues of Islamaphobia TM and the New Antisemitism TM excavating the many elements involved including the media and the State using case studies from across the world to highlight these The final section focuses on the challenges in developing a discourse on anti racism as well as presents strategies towards a platform for action
